Russia, India have 'strong and continuing contact': Jaishankar AGENCY MOSCOW, NOV 8

कमल का बटन दबाएं 🕎 🖚 भाजपा को जिताएं

External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar said that India and Russia have strong and continuing contacts at various levels.

Jaishankar and his Russian counterpart Sergey Lavrov on Tuesday held talks in Moscow covering a range of bilateral, regional and global issues of mutual interests.

In the opening remarks, Jaishankar said, "As you noted, there have been strong and continuing contacts between our governments at various levels. Prime Minister Modi and President Putin met most recently in Samarkand in September. Our Defence Ministers spoke to each other. My colleague National Security Advisor Ajit Doval was in Moscow in August. Our Minister for Chemicals and Fertilizers was in Russia in June. And at the official level, I think, our colleagues have been in regular touch. And this is all very much in the spirit of our relationship."

He further said that this is the fifth meeting between both Foreign Ministers which shows their long-term partnership.

The minister also said that today's meeting is devoted to bilateral cooperation; exchanging perspectives on the international situation and also interests.

"Where bilateral ties are concerned, you would agree that it is our objective today to fashion a contemporary, balanced, mutually beneficial, sustainable and long-term engagement. Especially as our economic cooperation increases, this is a significant imperative. We would be discussing how our shared goals are best achieved," he added.

Jaishankar, who arrived in Moscow on Monday, said, "Where the international situation is concerned, the last few years of the Covid pandemic, financial pressures and trade difficulties; these have taken a toll on the global economy. We are now seeing the consequences of the Ukraine conflict on top of that. There are also the more perennial issues of terrorism and climate change, both of which have a disruptive impact on progress and prosperity. Our talks will address the overall global situation and specific regional concerns."

He also said that India and Russia engage each other in an increasingly multi-polar and rebalanced world.

Meanwhile, Lavrov said, 'We coordinate our actions in international organizations such as UNSC where India is now a nonpermanent member... all this is enriching our agenda and I'm confident that today we're going to have a good conversation about all this."

Since the start of the Ukraine conflict earlier this year, India's bilateral ties with Russia have come under the scanner of the West for a surge in oil imports from sanctions-hit Moscow. The war in Ukraine which has continued for more than eight months has had a significant impact on global food security and has led to a sudden increase in Double engine govt to work for security, prosperity & happiness of all in HP: Yogi

KANGRA/KULLU/SHIMLA, NOV 8

constituencies of Kangra, Kullu and Shimla districts respectively in the pollbound Himachal Pradesh on Tuesday.

Taking a potshot at the Congress party in pollbound Himachal Pradesh, Yogi Adiyanath said in times of crisis, the brothersister duo disappear from the country, while under the leadership of PM Modi, the world looks up to India whenever it is faced with a crisis.

Seeking votes for BJP candidate Lokendra Kumar in the Anni assembly constituency of Kullu, the UP CM said "Have you ever seen this brother-sister duo of Congress during any crisis? During every crisis, Unhe Italy mein naani yaad aati hain, Kullu aur Anni nahi.

Congress leaders' interests are confined to that of their own families, but in PM Modi's government, every BJP worker considers the 135 crore people of India as a family and works accordingly. They have a responsibility to work for their security, happiness, and prosperity. "The one who is a companion in times of trouble is the true well-wisher," he remarked. India is now known as a 'leader' and not a laggard country under Prime Minister Modi, said Yogi, adding that the brave youths of Himachal Pradesh have "left no stone unturned" in providing security to the country. On the fourth day of his extensive campaign across the poll-bound hill state, Yogi Adityanath said, "When we mention Himachal Pradesh, brave youths from the state who protect the country's borders come to our mind.

Verdict on plea seeking worship of 'Shivling' in Gyanvapi on 14th

VARANASI, NOV 8

A fast-track court in Varanasi on Tuesday adjourned the matter for November 14 on the plea seeking worship of the 'Shivling' that the Hindu side claimed to be found on the Gyanvapi mosque premises. The matter was adjourned for November 14 as the concerned judge would not sit in the Fast Track court today. The Court was supposed to deliver its verdict on the three main demands by the plaintiff which include the permission for the immediate beginning of prayer of Swayambhu Jyotirlinga Bhagwan Vishweshwar, the handing over of the entire Gyanvapi complex to the Hindus, and banning the entry of Muslims inside the premises of the Gyanyapi complex. It is to be noted that the Muslim side is allowed to offer prayers at present. During the previous hearing that took place in October, the Varanasi court had refused to allow a 'scientific investigation' of the purported 'Shivling'. NEWS YUGMARG, CHANDIGARH, WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 9, 2022

BJP's five years rule in Himachal has more weightage than Congress': Anurag Thakur

BILASPUR: Union minister Anurag Thakur on Tuesday compared Congress' 60 years of rule in Himachal Pradesh with five years of rule of Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) and said that BJP's rule had more weightage.

"Compare Congress's 60 years of rule to our 5 years of rule, and you'll see that our 5 years of the rule will have more weightage. They (Congress) have only stopped developments whereas we have brought developments in the state," Thakur said while addressing a public rally in the Bilaspur district of Himachal Pradeshon Tuesday.

The minister further highlighted salient points of BJP's manifesto and said that the government will ensure 33 percent reservation for women in government jobs, cycles for school-going students and scooty for college-going students, Rs51,000 to poor women during their marriage, 3 free gas cylinders in a year for poor women, if BJP comes to power in Himachal Pradesh.

Voting in the state for 68 assembly seats is slated on November 12, and counting will be held on December 8. Asserting that the ruling BJP is not able to present a report card in poll-bound

Himachal Pradesh, Congress claimed that this is the reason why leader Sachin Pilot on Monday the party has "thrown all big leaders" including Prime Minister Narendra Modi for campaigning. Pilot, who was campaigning for Congress in the Himachal Assembly polls, said that the voters are "inclined towards the party" while also claiming that the ruling party (BJP) has "not done any work" in the last five years. Addressing the media here, Pilot said, "The voters are inclined towards Congress in the elections. BJP has not done any work in five years. BJP is not able to give the report card in front of the public. This is the reason why BJP has thrown all big leaders including PM for the campaign."

bound Himachal on November 5 to campaign for the BJP urging the people to vote for the party to bring it back to power. Union Home he slammed Congress over a Minister Amit Shah has also held range of issues.

Common people suffer due to scuffle between excise department, liquor contractors

KULDEEP SOOD BARNALA, NOV 8

With the connivance of the local liquor contractors, common people who hold functions in palaces etc. are subjected to harassment even after obtaining a liquor permit. This allegation has been made by Mr KC Sood, President of the District Marriage Palace Association.

While talking to the press, Mr. Sood said that generally, weddings etc. are booked by girls. According to the government regulations, if alcohol is served at the events, then permission has to be obtained from the district excise department, whose fee is paid by the palace management 40,000 per year and the party serving alcohol has to pay a permit fee of 1,000 rupees for serving alcohol. The District the bride's side pays the permit fee thinking that no one should start drinking alcohol from the side of the groom. Being afraid, they take the permit.

Sood said that sometimes some baratis buy two or four bottles from the nearby shop (liquor) to make use of liquor for entertainment. The contractors suddenly arrive at the wedding venue and start threatening the revellers and ask them to buy at least one closed case of whiskey from their dump.

Which is illegitimate pressure. According to the rules issued by the police administration, no contractor can come to the event venue without an inspector rank officer of the excise depart-

According to Satish Garg, vice president of the association, on contractors (liquor), the authorities do not care about these rules. The members of the association have appealed to the administration to order a highlevel investigation into the alleged irregularities.

Kasumpti: BJP's nonroyal outsider make race interesting

The ruling BJP in Himachal Pradesh is trying a non-royal approach in Kasumpti Assembly Constituency of Shimla by fielding State Urban Development Minister Suresh Bhardwaj in the fray, seeking to topple the Congress bastion.

Reference to Kasumpti constituency often sees swords drawn between Koti and Junga royal family members.

In the November 12 polls, saffron heavyweight Bhardwaj is pitted against erstwhile "king" - Anirudh Singh from Koti royal estate for Congress and pro-farmer CPM candidate Dr Kuldeep Singh Tanwar (also a Koti dynasty descendant) in a triangular contest.

The contests, in previous polls have remained in favour of Koti royalty. This poll, there are several issues unique to separate groups -- farmers are affected by the outbreak of the Lumpy disease; water and road crisis ail rural areas while it is one-time-settlement of houses in the merged area of 14 Three tourist destination including Kufri, Shailonbagh and Mashobra have lobby of hoteliers and poney riders. Congress have strongholds in Mashobra and Koti as Anirudh Singh is scion of Koti royal dynasty, however, CPM candidate Tanwar is also scion of same dynasty. BJP, as such, went experimental and did not rely upon Junga royal princely estate candidate Joytivijay Sen who was defeated twice. In a bid to penetrate the

Koti vote-bank beside having stronghold in Junga vote-bank normally, polled previously in favour of BJP, the saffron party pitted Bhardwaj in the race. Political commentators told UNI that Bhardwaj, who has been ousted from his parent constituency Shimla has been more or less pushed into political exile.

But given the anti-incumbency against Congress candidate in Kasumpti this time, Bhardwaj might score.

Union Minister Amit Shah's public meeting is in Dhali and BJP president JP Nadda's in Kasumpti town.

SUMER GARG SUNAM, NOV 8

Ascetic Shri Muni Kamal Kumar Ji, while addressing to the media and followers of Jainism said that Yug pradhan Acharva Shri Mahashraman Ji about 26 years ago declared my Sunam Chaturmas. But on the request of the then Collector of Chandigarh, Mr. KK Khandelwal my Sunam's Chaturmaas was shifted to Chandigarh. Muni Kamal Kumar Ji said, "To fulfill my that desire of Sunam Chaturmaas, I requested my revered Gurudev Acharya Shri Mahashraman Ji for my desire and he happily declared my Chaturmaas at Sunam. In a query about the achievements in Sunam during Chaturmas, Muni Shri said that the people of Sunam took full advantage of the Chaturmaas in the morning and in the evening from door

Namaskar, Mahamantra was chanted along with Samayak was heard for 125 times in a day, 12 and a half hours of discourse on the Samvatsari festival by Nami Muni.

Akhand chanting happened on Deepawali and on Deepawali Special Mangal path became inspirational for everyone. Inspiration lectures for the celebration of pollution-free Deepawali was given in many schools under Anuvrat Samiti, which yielded very good results.

A request for the Maryada Mahotsav at Sunam by a deputation including a large number of jain devotees was submitted in Chhapar. In which the entire Terapanth With Prabodh, there was a series of discourses every Sunday morning in the discourse program of two Samayiks along with the meditation of the Chalisa. there was also the music of Chalisa. The mutual harmony of all the divisions of Sunam, whether it is Terapanth Sabha or Mahila Mandal Yuva Parishad Anuvrat Samiti, Gyanshala, the unity of all was very useful in enhancing the dignity of Pavas. The arrangements for the people coming from outside were done by the Goyal family durity, chanting, sharing, Guru Dharana etc. Muni Ji said that on the completion of Chaturmas, he will go to Sangrur, where program of pleasant meeting with Muni Devendra Kumar Ji is also possible from Dhuri Brief about Terapanth sect of Jainism Acharya Bhikshu was the founder and first spiritual head of the Swetambar Terapanth sect of Jainism. He was a Devotee of Mahavira. In the initial phase of his spiritual revolution, he moved out from the group of Sthanakvasi Acharya Raghunath. At that time he had 13 saints, 13 followers and 13 the basic rules. This coincidence results in the name of "Terapanth" (Thirteen Path) and he referred it as "Hey Prabhu Yaha Terapanth". The various beliefs and teachings of the religious orders of those times greatly influenced his thinking. He studied and analysed result of the increase of tenac-

the various disciplines of the Jain religion and on this basis he compiled his own ideologies and principles of the Jain way of life. Based on the doctrines propagated, Acharya Bhikshu rigorously followed the principles. It was this way of life that was demonstrated by Acharya Bhikshu which became the foundation principle of Terapanth. The Letter of Conduct was written by him is still followed in the same manner with due respect with slight changes as per the time & situation. His followers piously referred to this monk as 'Swamiji' or 'Bhikshu Swami'. Acharva Bhikshu visualised a systematic, well established and orderly religious sect and saw it taking shape through Terapanth. To organise and stabilise this religious order he propagated the ideology of one guru and brought to an end the concept of self discipleship.

Clearer vision

recently attended a kind of symposium — a series of talks and discussions around a subject of my interest. It wasn't a field that one automatically associates with politics, though often in the past, and increasingly now, the political is unavoidably and deeply woven into the areas of activity we were discussing. Across two days, various practitioners from marginalised or beleaguered groups from different parts of the world made their presentations around the subject, followed by question-answer sessions, the whole thing concluding with a general discussion between all the presenters and the attending audience. Over the two days, some patterns emerged.

Many of the people presenting came from groups with long histories of suffered oppression, economic exploitation, marginalisation, and the silencing and the dismemberment of their traditions. A lot of their work in the area we were discussing attempts to address these dark and painful histories and current realities. One of the results of forging these new articulations is that the work produced often does not meet the older, classically established, criteria of the field and completely bypasses them. Looking at the challenges in exploring alternative processes and presenting the output, one understands that the old rules of evaluation, dated ideas of rigour, and the fraying matrices of discussion have to be put aside if one is to properly engage with what is going on.

properly engage with what is going on.

However, there is something else that also seems to be getting thrown up, and it is far from new, radical or in any way freeing. Of the marginal practitioners presenting at the event, the ones from the subcontinent all fell into the traps of stridency, over-simplification and extreme sensitivity to perceived slights and labels. Time and again, we heard sweeping statements that privileged the dramatic and the shocking over any nuanced truth. Repeatedly there were elisions and the papering over of difficult questions, hiding behind a kind of droning self-righteousness powered by un-interrogated cliches.

The reader might find it annoying that I am not naming or specifying the area that was being discussed. The reason for this is that my argument is a broader one, and the specifics of the particular practices and the exchanges that ensue from them would create a distraction from examining what I think is a larger problem. For example, there would be a general assertion — unarguably true — that the rights of such and such a marginal group had been trampled upon by various powers, from the British colonial authorities to the Central government of newly-independent India (or of a post-colonial neighbouring country) to the politicians, bureaucrats.

Why was Imran Khan shot?

Political mudslinging has begun in Pakistan after an assassination attempt was made on former prime minister Imran Khan during a rally in the Punjab province.

Imran Khan was shot at during his long march in Wazirabad on Thursday, leading to bullet injuries in his legs. After sustaining injuries, he was shifted to a hospital for treatment. He has since held both the coalition government and military establishment responsible for the attack.

Writing for Haaretz newspaper, journalist Kunwar Khuldune Shahid said Pakistan's most popular leaders have a long history of being unexpectedly eliminated from running in elections.

"When they aren't being ousted by the military, via coups or political skullduggery, they have been killed - from the country's first prime minister, Liaquat Ali Khan to Zulfikar Ali Bhutto to Benazir Bhutto," he worte for Israeli newspaper.

In a confessional video making rounds of social media, after the assassination bid on the cricketer-turned-politician, the suspect said, "He (Khan) was leading the people astray, and I couldn't stand it... While the Azaan (call for prayer) was going on, they were creating noise on decks (woofers). My conscience did not accept that." "They (Khan's government) accepted Israel. Accepting Israel is not something a Muslim should do. Our Prophet said only a kafir can be friends with another kafir, and will also become kafir alongside them," the shooter said, according to Haaretz, citing acceptance for Israel as the rationale for attacking Khan.

This comes in the backdrop of the Pakistan delegation's recent visit to Israel sparked a row after several ex-pats and a couple of citizens travelled to Israel. The trip organiser told Dawn newspaper they had arranged special permission from the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI).

According to Pakistan-based Kunwar

Shahid, Khan has been an active peddler of much of what his attacker alleges motivated his attempted assassination and the instrumentalization of violence itself for political gain. "When a Pakistani group visited Israel in May, Khan regurgitated the same antisemitic allegations that had been used against him, referencing the new government's movement towards recognizing the Jewish state," he added.

Shahid said Khan is hardly the first Pakistani leader to endorse venomous narratives for political gains. "The Sharif and Bhutto families, who have long been the target of suppression by the military, have now replaced Khan in doing the military's bidding, including the same gaslighting about how they won't give in on the Israeli front," he wrote in Haaretz.

Study links ultraprocessed foods to premature deaths

raditional foods and meals created from fresh and minimally processed components are gradually being replaced by ultra-processed foods (UPFs), readyto-eat or heat industrial formulations made with substances taken from foods or synthesised in laboratories, recent research has revealed

The study in the American Journal of Preventive Medicine, published by Elsevier, has found that increased consumption of these foods was associated with more than 10% of all-cause premature, preventable deaths in Brazil in 2019, although Brazilians consume far less of these products than countries with high incomes. "Previous modelling studies have estimated the health and economic burden of critical ingredients, such as sodium, sugar and trans fats, and specific foods or drinks, such as sugar-sweetened beverages," explained lead investigator Eduardo A.F. Nilson, ScD, Center for Epidemiological Research in Nutrition and Health, University of Sao Paulo, and Oswaldo Cruz Foundation, Brazil.

"To our knowledge, no study to date has estimated the potential impact of UPFs on premature deaths. Knowing the deaths attributable to the consumption of these foods and modeling how changes in dietary patterns can support more effective food policies might prevent disease and premature deaths."

Dr. S. Radhakrishnan - Plato of the 20th Century

Natwar Singh, a celebrated author and an admirer of Dr. Radhakrishna, beautifully narrates the following episodes significantly exhibiting the greatness of Dr. Radhakrishnan. "When Dr. Radhakrishnan met chairman Mao-Tse Tung at the latter's residence, both shake hands. Then the unimaginable happened. He pat Mao-Tse on his cheeks. Before the chairman could show surprise or annoyance, Dr. Radhakrishnan. broke the silence, saying, "Do not be alarmed, Mr. Chairman I did the same to Stalin and the Pope." On another occasion while welcoming the King of Greece on his state visit to India, "Your Majesty, you are the first king of Greece to visit India, Alexander came uninvited". Such was his phenomenal personality and man of rare wit and exceptional self-confidence. He was a devoted teacher, an intellectual and eminent philosopher, par-excellent writer, a fine orator world-renowned statesman, truthful politician and above all, a firm believer in the existence of God. All these virtues laden with simplicity, a turbaned gentleman, clad with a set of white khadi clothes, looked like a saint (true to his looks), bewitched everyone irrespective of being high or low. He was born on 5th September 1888, at Tiruttani in Andhra Pradesh in a poor Brahmin family. His early education was at local schools and for higher education joined the Voorhees college in Vellore and Madras Christian college and passed graduation and post-graduation with Philosophy as his main subject. He started his career as Asst. Prof. of Philosophy in Madras Presidency College and rose to vice chancellor of various universities and then Ambassador to Russia, Vice President and finally President of India.

and finally President of India.

His ascendency has been well predicted at the time of his departure to Oxford, by Richard Littlehaites, the then Vice Chancellor of Madras University at the farewell function in Madras, who said that, "He has raised himself step-by-step when he will attain the summit of Mount Everest.....Emulate such a man as Woodrow Wilson who one time a professor ended up as president of the USA. I look forward to Radhakrishnan taking a similar position."

He was a distinguished scholar of Philosophy and comparative religion and an authority on Hinduism. He has written 78 books besides numerous lectures delivered and papers published from time to time. The Hindu View of Life, The Principal Upanishads, Gautama the Buddha, An Idealistic view of Life are amongst his best books still in print. That is why he has proudly been regarded as the Plato of the 20th century. He has handled the politically posts with high degree of dignity maturity and wisdom As Ambassador to Russia; he has the unique distinction of Stalin releasing his books whereas his predecessor Vijay Lakshmi Pandit never met Stalin during her two-year stint as Ambassador to Russia. He gracefully and firmly handled the Rajya Sabha proceedings and as President worked with record number of Prime Ministers from Pandit Jawaharlal Nehru to Lal Bahadur Shastri, Indira Gandhi and Guljari Lal Nanda and showed his firmness in opposing the continuation of Krishna Menon, the then defence minister of India after Chinese aggression of 1962.

The sense of being surrounded by divine presence, he has untroubled sense of wholeness but sometimes somewhere and something peeves us and same happened with this unique human being". He was not nominated for presidency for the second term though the congress party vociferously supported his candidature. More painful and irritating has been the unexpected nonsupporting attitude of Indira Gandhi whom he treated and regarded as daughter. Secondly though for his literary acumen and truthful psolitical life he was honored with so many awards including Bharat Ratan but like Mahatma Gandhi, Leo Tolstoy, D.H. Laurance, Nobel prize eluded him.

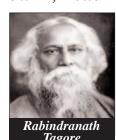

He might be the only person in the world who had been nominated for record 27 times, 16 times for literature and 11 times for Nobel Peace Prize but this denial has put the credibility of The Swedish Academy in question. Lastly, the fag end of his life was not comfortable as told in the biography, by S. Gopal, his illustrious son and distinguished historian, as loss of his three son-in-laws and demise of his friends and colleagues, C. Rajgopalachariya, Mohan Kumarmangalam and T. T. Krishnachariya and he became heart-sick and wished to leave the worldly scene at the earliest. However, inspite of these irritants, his name and fame will continue to shine in the annals of intellectual and political history of India. The celebration of 5th December, his birth date as Teacher's day is a milestone in this direction. Being a true saint, God has rescued him from seeing the black spot of Indian democracy 'The Emergency' imposed on 5th June 1975 as he 'drifted out of the harbour' on 17th April 1975. Had he been alive on this fateful day, his mind would have never rested in peace.

India's G20 Presidency: A watershed moment for emerging economies

s India gears up to as-Twenty (G20) Presidency in less than one month on December 1, it finds itself in a unique position to speak for the concerns and priorities of the world's developing nations. India stands at the centre of the Indonesia-India-Brazil G20 Troika — the first of its kind led by emerging economies in the 14-year-long history of this prestigious intergovernmental forum. As the world's 5th largest growing economy with a population of nearly 1.4 billion, India wields considerable economic, political, and social influence to effectively guide the global narrative to better represent contemporary realities.

This G20 moment is an opportunity for the nation to carry forward, conceptualise, and pass on, an international agenda that foregrounds inclusive, equitable, and sustainable growth, with a keen focus on LiFE (lifestyle for environment), digital public infrastructure, women empowerment, and tech-enabled development. However, to highlight these priorities in the midst of an increasingly polarised world order is no small task. India's presidency collides with other eclipsing global concerns ranging from the fallout of the Russia-Ukraine conflict and widespread economic recession to the crippling debt crisis affecting developing nations. The COVID-19 pandemic has also heavily disrupted decades of developmental progress, backgrounding the United Nations (UN) Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) in favour of more immediate disaster mitigation.

At this juncture, India's vision of sustainable growth, rooted in global interconnectedness, shared responsibility, and a circular-economy, is the need of the hour. To highlight this mission, India is adopting 'Vasudhaiva Kutumbakam' or 'One Earth. One Family. One Future,' as the theme for its

cient Sanskrit text, this philosophy finds resonance in India's diplomatic worldview as far back as 2014, when Prime Minister Narendra Modi spoke of "world family" at his historic UN General Assembly address. At the time, the PM was calling for a greater role for the G-4 coalition, stressing the need to stop viewing policy as a "zero sum game." Today, this message remains more pertinent than ever, as humanity grapples with its biggest existential threat to — the cascading impact of climate change. India's theme hopes to remind world leaders, as well as global citizenry, of the interconnectedness of all life forms — from the smallest microorganism to largest civilisational ecosystem — and how this shared future begets equitable responsibility and individual the Maha Upanishad, an an-

India's G20 logo speaks to a similar philosophy. The image of planet Earth cradled by the lotus — the country's national flower that symbolises growth amid obstacles — speaks to India's pro-planet approach to life, and the logo's seamless blend of saffron, white, and green reflects the principles of diversity and inclusion that underpin its cultural ethos. India has long been, and continues to be, a purveyor of universal harmony and collaboration.

The concept of LiFE and collaboration.

The concept of LiFE (lifestyle for environment) ties closely with these principles, and was introduced by the Prime Minister at COP26 at Glasgow in November 2021. Last month, the mission was officially launched by the PM in the presence of the UN Secretary General António Guterres at the Statue of Unity, Gujarat. In its essence, the movement aims to make "the fight against climate change democratic," in which "everyone can contribute according to his or her capacity," the PM stated in his speech. By nudging changes in consumption and production patterns both at a societal as well as an individual level, LiFE hopes to incentivise environmentally sustainable practices at a large-scale across the world.

Under its G20 Presidency, India will get the opportunity to showcase its harmonious philosophy and ancient civilisational traditions that have sustained its holistic relationship with the Earth for generations. India's rich history of sustainable practices makes it uniquely placed to talk about the integration of the climate and development agenda. On the digital front, India is primed to lead by example. Its digital success story speaks for itself, and its core belief in a human-centric approach to technology-driven solutions can facilitate greater focus on key areas like public digital infrastructure, financial inclusion, and tech-enabled development from agriculture to education. As a country that accounts for the largest number of real-time digital transactions in the world (48 billion as of 2022), and houses the largest biometric ID system (Aadhar), India is in a pivotal position to shape conversations around digital financial inclusion, digital identities, and consent-based frameworks. Further, India is also determined to deliver outcomes in other critical areas including, but not limited to, women's empowerment, accelerating progress towards the 2030 SDGs, tech-enabled development across multiple sectors, green hydrogen, disaster risk reduction, enhancing food security and nutrition, and multilateral reform.

We delivered what we promised, Cong misleads people: Jai Ram Thakur

DINESH AGARWAL SHIMLA, NOV 8

We delivered what we promised, whereas Congress only misleads people. Congress is giving 10 guarantees today, but ask them what about their guarantees of 2012 elections that we will give job to every household. Did all the households in the state get jobs? talked about giving unemployment allowance. Did youth get unemployment allowance? Congress only makes election promises and does not fulfill them. Chief Minister Jai Ram Thakur said this while addressing a huge public meeting in Dharampur. The Chief Minister said that we do not make promises but believe in doing things. We did not promise but brought Himcare scheme. We also did not promise that we will start pension from 60 years. We didn't even promise that we would give gas connections to every house. We did not even promise to give 31 thousand rupees on the marriage of daughters of poor families. But we have done this. Chief Minister Jai Ram Thakur on Tuesday campaigned in four assembly constituencies. The Chief Minister campaigned for BJP candidate Surat Negi in Kinnaur, Rajat Thakur in Dharampur, Anil Sharma in Mandi and Seraj in his constituency. Addressing an election rally in Dharampur, the Chief Minister said that during the last five years, we have worked to take Himachal to the pinnacle of development in all spheres and aspects . Seven and a half lakh taps were installed in the houses in 75 years after independence, but in the last two and a half years, more than eight and a half lakh tap connections have been installed in the state. The Chief Minister said that two years were affected due to Corona, but we did not let the development stop. He said that today Himachal has got big projects like AIIMS, Bulk Drug Park, Vande Bharat Train, Medical Device Park. Despite being a small state, Himachal has got a lot from the Centre. This is because Prime Minister Narendra Modi is at the centre and he has a special connection and love for the state and our people, this is why the entire state should run with Prime Minister Narendra Addressing a huge public meeting in Kinnaur, the Chief Minister said that our government understood the expectations of Kinnaur and fulfilled them. Like Kinnaur, there was no dearth of development in other inaccessible areas of the state. The Chief Minister said that Congress is doing the work of misleading the people to come to power, but the educated people of the state will not fall under their bluff. During this, the Chief Minister also gave information about the promises made in the manifesto for women. After the death of the country's first voter Shyam Saran Negi in Kinnaur, the Chief Minister reached Kalpa at his home and also met the family members and expressed his condolences.

employees, and their future is a question. He said that it was necessary to implement this scheme from a human point of view, and in Rajasthan this scheme has been implemented. He asked Prime Minister Modi to implement this scheme in the whole country so that the employees can get support in old age. Farmers reel under DAP fertilizer shortage

SHIV KUMAR SHARMA KACHHWA, NOV 8

In Seva Sahakari Samiti, Kachhwa, there is a severe shortage of DAP fertilizer these days, due to which the wheat growing farmers are worried. For the past several days they have been making rounds of the committee but they are not being supplied with fertilizer. On the other hand, the committee managers say that they have placed an order for DAP fertilizer, and as soon as the fertilizer will arrive, they will give it to the farmers. Farmers have to apply DAP fertilizer in the wheat fields below every year during Rabi season which is the time of wheat sowing. With the fertilizer not available with the committee, how can they sow wheat, their sowing is getting late, which will affect their crop production capacity. Farmers rue the committee managers should have ordered this fertilizer earlier. Farmers Gyan Chand Wadhwa, Suresh Kumar Sharma and Baldev alleged that the first DAP fertilizer stock that was available was distributed among the large number of favoured landowners with the connivance of the committee managers, leaving small and medium farmers high and dry. Now, as the new stock has got delayed, the farmers are making fruitless rounds of the office. They come with tractor trolleys but they have to go back empty in despair. However, Satpal, Manager, Co-operative Society, Kachawa, said that an order of 3000 bags of DAP has been placed and will be distributed to the farmers as soon as the fertilizer arrives.

Bharatiya Janata Party national spokesperson Nalin Kohli, while addressing the press conference, said that the BJP strongly condemns the statement given by Pratibha Singh regarding Maryada Purushottam Shri Ram Chandra ji and Shri Ram Mandir, the centre of our faith. Pratibha Singh has put our faith in the dock. Does Pratibha Singh want our Dev Bhoomi Himachal to be made into Mamata Didi's Bengal? where she openly opposes the slogan "Jai Shri Ram." On the other hand, the Bharatiya Janata Party resolves to spend Rs 12,000 crore to strengthen religious tourism. Nalin Kohli said that Congress leaders talk about corruption. They should worry about their first family and the central family. Where the first family of Himachal is carrying apples on a scooter, on the other hand, the first family of Congress at the centre is on bail in the National Herald case. From the Jeep scam to coal and the National Herald, the Congress party has not left any place in water, land, or air where corruption has not been done. There is zero tolerance for corruption in the Bharatiya Janata Party, due to which there has been no case of corruption in the centre or states during the BJP's rule.

They've been outstanding: Williamson praise bowlers ahead of SF

AGENCY SYDNEY, NOV 8

New Zealand captain Kane Williamson was full of praise for his bowlers ahead of their crucial T20 World Cup semifinal clash against Pakistan here at the SCG on Wednesday.

Williamson thinks the consistency of his bowlers also played a pivotal role in their journey to the semifinals. The BlackCaps have been outstanding in the Super 12s and finished at the top of Group

"I mean, they're experienced players for us. They've played for us a long time, whether that's taking wickets or, in particular, adjusting to conditions which certainly we need them to come to tournaments, world events, that's a big part of playing," ICC quoted Williamson as saying in the pre-match press conference on

"So they've been outstanding throughout this tournament. And tomorrow we're at another venue against another opposition, and we'll have to make those adjustments again," he added.

Three of the five bowlers New Zealand has used in this tournament have maintained an economy rate of less than seven.

Tim Southee (6.35), Mitchell

Santner (6.43) and Ish Sodhi (6.78) have been outstanding. Only Lockie Ferguson (8.13) and Trent Boult (7.18) have been a little expensive but they have also done the job for the Kiwis as they have been real wicket-taking Williamson also went on to talk about the venue and the conditions. They have played in Sydney twice in this tournament already but he doesn't think it's going to be an advantage for them going in the match tomorrow.

"I suppose it's kind of interesting, the first game we played here. the wicket was a very good one. And then the second time we played here it had changed. And sometimes you can take perhaps what you were expecting the wicket to be like in the first game and think it would behave in the same way, which it didn't,' Williamson said.

'Whether that's a disadvantage or an advantage, it's sort of hard to know. Both teams have played here. So we need to focus on our cricket really and the plans we want to look to execute and make sure we do adjust to the conditions and try and play smart," he said. The 32-year-old is well aware of the strength of Pakistan's pace attack and understands that their batters really need to be at the top of their game while facing them.

"They've got an outstanding pace attack. Like I mentioned, they've been playing really good cricket. They've got very experienced players on their side, who are match-winners. So, that's a real strength for them," he said.

New Zealand have been a really consistent side when it comes to ICC events. They were the runner-ups in the 2019 ODI World Cup and also in the T20 World Cup last year.
When asked about the secret behind their consistency in major tournaments, Williamson said: ""You come to these tournaments, and as we've seen, all teams can beat each other and it's definitely a pretty exciting event. I guess you're going through it trying to adjust to conditions as quickly as possi-ble, make those changes to the different opposition and really go out and try and express your-

We have not played our best game so far, says Ben Stokes

AGENCY ADELAIDE, NOV 8

England all-rounder Ben Stokes said that the team is yet to play at its best and is improving every game in the ongoing T20 World Cup, ahead of the semi-final clash with India.

The southpaw also talked about his preparations ahead of the all-important game against India and iterated on the importance of repeating the basics, while speaking at the press conference in Adelaide.

'We have not played our best game so far but we have reached here and improved game by game to be here. Preparations are all about doing the same stuff again and again, getting into the game and making sure that you have done everything that you need to do, to win the game," stated Stokes.

The star player talked about the challenge of playing on a different ground, with slightly smaller square boundaries and said that the team would have to change their ploy of using the long square boundaries to their advantage.

'Would love to see what the wicket is like on Thursday. It's about adapting and assessing whatever the situation presents. Adelaide is different from the aries, where we have looked to get the grounds that we have played on, with different dimensions. We have played on grounds with bigger square bound-batters hit to the long boundaries but here we wil have to change our plans a bit," expressed the England test cap-

While talking about handling the pressure in crunch games and tense situations, the player said," In terms of big-game situations, I like to just look at the scoreboard and try and simplify the game to take the pressure off.

Stokes talked about the team's chances of going ahead in the World Cup and said that a strong Indian team will not be easy to get through. He also reflected upon his performance in the World Cup and the possibility of an India-Pakistan final.

"I hope so. We have two games to win and first up against a very strong India lineup whom no one will ever take lightly. We are a team who likes to focus on ourselves and not think too much about the opposition. Just did what needed to be done. The situation was not too much of an ask, it was just run a ball to get, the wicket was slowing down so I assessed that I need to be there till the end and get the job done. It will be great for the people in India and Pakistan. But I honestly don't know. We are here to win and play our best game," said the allrounder. "He is being looked after and monitored on a day-to-day basis so I don't have any updates or news about him,' informed Stokes about middle-order batter Dawid Malan.

Farmers suffer blow as HC reduces compensation for acquired land

SHIV KUMAR SHARMA KARNAL. NOVEMBER 8

The Punjab and Haryana High Court has passed two separate collective judgments of 190 cases and 85 cases, reducing the compensation amount increased by the District Court to Rs 15 lakh per acre for the land acquired for setting up Sector-3. The verdict has dealt a blow to the farmers of Karnal. Advocate Chaudhary Shakti

Singh, who represented farmers in the District Court, while giving the information, said that for establishing Sector-3 by HSIIDC, the Land Acquisition Collector announced compensation on 10-5-2005 at the rate of Rs. 6 lakh per acre in Sector-3, and on 23-6-2009, at the rate of Rs 15 lakh per acre in sector 3 extension.

The farmers filed a petition against these awards and the District Court decided to increase the compensation amount in the year 2014 and 2015 to Rs. 2579720/- and Rs. 4020884/- per acre respectively in both the cases against, against which a total of 275 RFAs were filed by HSI-IDC and farmers in the High Court.

The High Court has now decided on these 275 RFAs and decided to reduce the compensation amount to Rs.18 lakh in one case and Rs.15 lakh per acre in the other case. The farmers say that this decision is not fair and justice has not been done to them. The farmers said that they will all together file an SLP in the Supreme Court against these decisions of the High Court and they have full faith in the justice system that the Supreme Court will surely do justice to them by increasing the compensation amount.
