BJD MP Anubhav Mohanty joins BJP

BHUBANESWAR: Actor turned politician and BJD MP from Kendrapara, An-ubhav Mohanty, who resigned from the primary membership of the party on Saturday, joined the BJP on Monday. Anubhav, who was elected to Rajya Sabha from Odisha as a BJD candidate in 2014 and also elected to Lok Sabha from Kendrapara Lok Sabha seat in 2019, joined the BJP at the party's headquarters in Delhi.

He is the second BJD-sitting MP to join the BJP. Earlier, six-time Lok Sabha MP from Cuttack and also the founding member of BJD, Bhartruhari Mahatab, resigned from the primary membership of the party and joined the BJP. Anubhav, who was a star campaigner of the BJD during both the 2014 and 2019 general elections in the state, was once one of the star campaigners of the ruling BJD in Odisha. In his resignation letter to Party President Naveen Patnaik, Anubhav stated, "Despite my unwavering loyalty and deep admira-

NEW DELHI: A senior official in the Ministry of Civil Aviation informed that after a successful trial run and clearances from other departments and related security agencies, full body scanners are likely to be introduced at airports with more than five million foot-falls by April end.

These airports fall under the hypersensitive category, as per the Bureau of Civil Aviation Security. "In a meeting with airport operators, they have been informed of installing full-body scanners. Likely the Bangalore airport will be the first airport to introduce full body scanners. Delhi Airport is also likely to add the safety feature very soon," a senior official said.

Delhi Court sends Kejriwal to Judicial Custody till April 15

AGENCY NEW DELHI, APRIL 1

The Rouse Avenue Court on Monday sent Delhi Chief Minister Arvind Kejriwal to judicial custody till April 15 in an alleged money laundering case linked to the Delhi excise policy case.

The Enforcement Directorate, while seeking direction to send Kejriwal to judicial custody, said the arrestee has even given false and contrary evidence vis-a-vis other members of the AAP. When he was confronted with the statements given by his party leaders, he called them Arvind Kejriwal first says that

ND Gupta is an active member of the party, is a member of the PAC (Political Affairs Committee) and knows the party's functioning but when confronted with the statement of N D Gupta, wherein he reveals that the National Convenor takes such decisions, Arvind Kejriwal calls the National Treasurer confused. On being asked about the extent of interaction and reporting of Vijay Nair to the arrestee, he stated that Vijay Nair didn't report to him but to Aatishi Marlena and Saurav Bharadwai and his interaction with Vijay Nair was limited, said ED. Having noted the submissions, Special Judge Kaveri Baweja on Monday decided to send Kejriwal to judicial custody until April 15. Meanwhile, the Court directed Tihar Jail authorities to allow Kejriwal to carry prescribed medicine and books. The court also asked authorities to provide one table and chair, a religious locket and a special diet as rescribed by the doctors, as per the iail manual.

Kejriwal, through his lawyers, moved an application and sought permission to carry several books, including Bagwad Geeta, Ramayana and a book titled "How Prime Minister Decided", authored by Neerja Chaudhary

During the hearing, Atishi, Saurabh Bharadwaj, and Gopal Rai remain present in the courtroom. Arvind Kejriwal's wife also attended the court proceedings.

Senior Advocate Ramesh Gupta and Advocates Rajat Bharadwaj, Mudit Jain, Mohd Irshad and Vivek Jain appeared for Arvind Kejriwal, while ASG SV Raju, along with Zoheb Hossain, Naveen Kumar Matta and Simon Benjamin, appeared for the Enforcement Directorate.

Earlier, Senior Advocate Abhishek Manu Singhvi appeared for Arvind Kejriwal and submitted that a sitting CM was arrested one week ago during the Model Code of Conduct. The heart of democracy is a level playing field and a free and fair election: If you do something to disrupt the level playing field, you hit the heart of democracy. My prayer is to be released now because the foundation of my arrest is flawed. This is my interim prayer.

Arvind Kejriwal, through his plea, alleged that the DOE has, at the time of arrest, failed to establish that the petitioner is guilty of committing activities stipulated under Section 3, i.e., be it concealment, possession, acquisition, or use of proceeds of crime, as much as projecting it as untainted property or claiming it to be so. The fact that the petitioner/Kejriwal was arrested without any interrogation or questioning shows that the present proceedings of arrest are pre-meditated and nothing but an act of political vendetta to skew the balance and level-playing field in the 2024 general election, stated his lawyer.

The Supreme Court on Monday refused to stay the Allahabad High Court order, which had upheld the Varanasi district court's order allowing Hindus to perform prayers of deities inside the Vyas Tehkhana', southern celler of Gyanvapi mosque.

A bench of Chief Justice of India DY Chandra-chud and Justices JB Pardiwala and Manoj Misra ordered the Hindu and Muslim sides to maintain the status quo at the Gyanvapi premises to enable both communities to offer 'puja' and 'namaz'.

The status quo should not be altered without the permission of the apex court, said the bench. The bench took note that the access to the Tehkhana where the 'puja' is held and the area where Muslims pray are different. The top court said that Hindus would enter from the South and pray in Tehkhana and Muslims would enter from the Northern side for prayer.

"At this stage, bearing in mind the fact that namaz is being offered by Muslim communities unhindered after the district only.

"Are we correct to say that prayers in the South (cellar) do not impact (Muslim) prayers In North. If this is correct., we can say let no further change happen in the status quo further. We say let namaz continue and worship in the south cellar can continue, said CJI Chandrachud during the hearing.

It further issued notice to Hindu plaintiffs on an appeal of mosque committee challenging an order of Allahabad High Court over 'puja' of deities inside the 'Vyas Tehkhana'.

The top court now posted the matter for hearing in July.

Mosque committee filed appeal against High Court order contending that the administration was acting in 'hot haste' soon after the Varanasi

Court's order to perform the 'Puja' at night.

On January 31, Va ranasi district court allowed the Hindu side to offer prayers in the southern cellar of Gyanvapi mosque. The court directed the Varanasi district magistrate to make arrangements within seven days for 'puja' to be performed by the Hindu side and a poojari nominated by Shri Kashi Vishwanath Temple Trust.

After the order of the court, 'puja' and 'aarti' are being performed there.

The district court has issued the order on the plea of head priest of Acharya Ved Vyas Peeth temple, Shailendra Kumar Pathak Vyas, seeking worship of Shringar Gauri and other visible, and invisible deities in the cellar of the mosque. Vyas is the scion of the family which was performing 'puja' in this cellar till December 1993.

Video of religious function casting two dancers as Sikh characters creates controversy

CHANDIGARH, APR 1 (UNI)

A video of a religious function casting two dancers as Sikh characters has created a controversy and a Sikh organisation has complained to police as well as administration authorities demanding action. "X" handle Tracking Hate Against Sikhs on Monday

Modi's agenda is to stop Kejriwal from campaign in elections: Malvinder Kang

GAURAV GOEL CHANDIGARH, APR 1

The Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) launching a verbal attack on the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) said that there is no liquor scam, this entire false script that was written by Enforcement Directorate on the direction of Prime Minister Narendra Modi has been exposed once again, as ED failed to produce any evidence in the court today.

Addressing a press conference, on Monday, AAP Punjab chief spokesperson Malvinder Singh Kang said that AAP's National Supremo and Delhi chief minister Arvind Kejriwal is sent to jail for judicial custody today.

The most interesting thing is that despite 11 days of ED remand, ED is still saying the same statements that they said after they arrested Vijay Nair. There is not a single new evidence, as we have been saying from the first day that this is a script created by BJP with one motive that is to keep Arvind Keiriwal out of the upcoming Lok Sabha elections. Kang said that there is no new evidence or witness against Arvind Kejriwal. After 11 days of remand, today Kejriwal was again sent to judicial custody for 14 days, which makes their motive very clear. The statement, on the basis of which remand was given, was recorded one and a half years ago by the ED itself only. It is clearly a conspiracy of the BJP to keep Arvind Kejriwal out of the Lok Sabha elections. Kang said that 11 days ago

Arvind Kejriwal was arrested by ED in a fabricated case which was registered one and a half years ago. There was mention of the South Lobby, and it was said that there was a liquor scam and commission was demanded from the south lobby. The truth of so-called South Lobby, on the basis of which BJP is continuously registering false cases against Arvind Kejriwal and keeping him away from the elections, is that first there is Goa's Sarath Chand Reddy, he is the son of a businessman of a South firm worth Rs 25000 crore, he is not an ordinary man, he was arrested by ED in November 2022 in a money laundering case. Sarath Chandra Reddy was made a witness against Arvind Kejriwal and 10 days after his arrest, BJP took an election fund of 55 crores from this Sarath Chandra Reddy through electoral bonds. All of this is on record. Kang further said that as per the direction of the Hon'ble Supreme Court, electoral bond data is made public. Then it came to light that Sarath Chandra Reddy, who was made a witness against Arvind Kejriwal, gave Rs. 55 crore election fund to the BJP within 10 days after his testimony

His statement was taken about 6 times in April 2023 and he didn't mention Arvind Keiriwal in any of these statements and he also said that he has nothing to do with Arvind Kejriwal. Kang added that in May 2023, his bail was rejected by the High Court. A person who is the owner of 25000 crores and has to stay in jail for 6 months and has already given Rs 55 crore election fund to BJP and still he does not get bail, then something must be wrong here.

After about 8 months, Sarath Chandra Reddy gives a false statement against Arvind Kejriwal. BJP takes 55 crores from Sarath Chandra Reddy who was made a witness against Arvind Kejriwal in the alleged liquor scam and 5 crores separately, and then he gets bail. Kang said that the second person they made the main witness against Arvind Kejriwal is Magunta Sreenivasuľu Reddy (MŠR). He is also a very big businessman from the South. In 2021, a money laundering case was registered against him. He is a four-time Member of Parliament. His son Raghava Reddy was also made a witness against Arvind Keiriwal.

Tell Punjabis how much money you took from corporates to dismantle APMCs: Harsimrat to Mann

ANIL VERMA BATHINDA, APR 1

Former union minister and Bathinda MP Harsimrat Kaur Badal today demanded chief minister Bhagwant Mann tell Punjabis how much money had been taken from corporates to dismantle agriculture produce market committees (APMCs) by notifying eleven silos in nine districts of the State. The Bathinda MP, who was on a tour of the constituency, while speaking at Jhanda Khurd village in the Sardulgarh assembly segment, said by notifying the eleven silos Bhagwant Mann had implemented the agenda of the central government and implemented one of the hated three black laws which had been revoked after a one and a half year struggle by farmer unions. Urging farmers to unite to defeat the nefarious conspiracy to privatize 'mandis' in Punjab by the Aam Aadmi Party (AAP) government, Mrs Harsimrat Badal said 'more than seven hundred farmers gave up their lives to win this reprieve for the State. We cannot let their sacrifices go in vain by allowing this antifarmer government to privatize our mandis" Badal also asked the chief minister to tell why he had shared the stage with the Congress in a dharna in Delhi to protest against the arrest of Delhi chief minister Arvind Keiriwal if AAP was not in alliance with the Congress, "This proves that the Congress and AAP are conducting a sham fight in Punjab by contesting the parliamentary elections separately". Badal also asked the Congress party to explain its double standards. She said the Congress was the first to raise its voice against the liquor scam and demand a probe into it. "Now the same party is sitting in dharna with AAP to save Arvind Kejriwal after the latter has been arrest-

Editorial Three famines

There are three incipient famines in the world today, and politics is at the root of each of them. That's not unusual, actually: famines are almost always political events. My family is descended from the Irish Catholic diaspora, and when I was a boy in Newfoundland, we would sometimes play the game, 'potatoes and point', at the dinner table. We'd point at the potatoes (there was always a bowl of boiled potatoes with the main meal) and say "may I have a slice of beef' or the main meal) and say "may I have a slice of beef" or "I'll have some more carrots, please." It was a distant echo of the Great Famine of 1845-1852 in Ireland that halved the country's population. Potato blight killed the potatoes, but it was politics — an ideologically driven British government refused to interfere in the working of the free market by giving the starving Irish free food — that killed the people.

For a mere political decision to topple a country

ror a mere political decision to toppie a country into famine, it has to be food-stressed already. But politics provides the final push: that's what is killing people today in Sudan, Gaza and Haiti. The 'politics' in question is generally a war of some sort — and in most cases, the starvation is a by-product of the war, not even the main event. That is certainly the case in Sudan, the biggest of the current famines. According to the United Nations World Food Programme, nearly 18 million people in Sudan are facing 'acute food insecurity' as a result of the civil war that broke out in April 2023 between two rival factions of the armed forces.

Haiti's situation is much the same. The capital, Port-au-Prince, has been overrun by armed gangs who have taken control of the port and the roads to block food supplies from entering the city. Starving people provides excellent political leverage.
While nearly 1.4 million Haitians are going without

While nearly 1.4 million Haitians are going without food for days at a time and there is plenty of random killing, famine is probably still several months away.

The famine in the Gaza Strip is also clearly manmade, in the sense that without the war it would not be happening. It was Hamas that started the war, intending to trigger a violent Israeli retaliation. It would then use the Palestinian victims created by that response to further its own political agenda.

It's a standard guerilla strategy, so the Israelis knew what Hamas wanted them to do. The fact that the Israeli Defense Forces did it anyway was a deliberate decision by the government. So what did the coalition government of the prime minister, Benjamin Netanyahu, hope to gain from the destruction and the food blockade? There is a deliberate food blockade, although Tel Aviv denies it. Aerial photographs from late last month showed 2,000 aid trucks waiting to cross at Rafah. Most are still there now, containing enough food to feed everyone in Gaza.

Assassination of Russian defector raises suspicions of covert hit operations

The individuals responsible for the death of Maksim Kuzminov evidently aimed to convey a strong message, a fact apparent to investigators in Spain even before they identified the victim. In a parking garage in southern Spain, they shot Kuzminov six times and callously ran over his body with their vehicle, The New York Times reported.

The presence of shell casings from 9-millimeter Makarov rounds, standard ammunition in the former Communist bloc, provided a vital clue to the killers' identity, according to investigators.

"It was a clear message," remarked a senior official from the Guardia Civil, the Spanish police force leading the investigation. "I will find you, I will kill you, I will run you over and humiliate you."

Kuzminov, who defected from Russia to Ukraine, committed an act deemed unforgivable by Russian President Vladimir Putin: treachery. Last summer, he flew his Mi-8 military helicopter into Ukrainian territory, delivering the aircraft and a cache of secret documents to Ukrainian intelligence operatives, according to NYT.

His brutal killing in the seaside town of Villajoyosa last month raises concerns about the continued operation of Russia's European spy networks, despite efforts to dismantle them following Russia's invasion of Ukraine in 2022.

Russian intelligence services have reportedly escalated their activities both domestically and internationally, displaying a level of aggression reminiscent of the Stalin era, according to Andrei Soldatov, an expert on Russia's military and security services.

"This goes beyond traditional espionage," Soldatov stated. "It involves operations, which may include assassinations."

In Spain, Kuzminov lived conspicuously, frequenting bars popular among Russian and Ukrainian clientele and spending lavishly. He drove a black Mercedes S-Class around Villajoyosa.

The method by which the assailants located him remains uncertain, though two Ukrainian officials claimed he had contacted a former girlfriend in Russia, inadvertently revealing his location.

"This was a grave mistake," one official remarked, as reported by NYT.

Senior police officials, speaking anonymously, noted similarities between Kuzminov's killing and other attacks associated with the Kremlin, such as the assassination of a former Chechen rebel commander in Berlin in 2019 and the poisoning of former Russian military intelligence operative Sergei V Skripal in Salisbury, England, in 2018.

The two hooded killers captured on surveillance footage from the parking garage were evidently skilled professionals who executed their mission swiftly before vanishing without a trace.

"This level of violence is uncommon in Spain," remarked Chief Pepe Alvarez of the Villajoyosa Police Department. "It suggests involvement of organised crime or a criminal organisation."

While direct Kremlin involvement has not been substantiated, Russia has openly expressed its desire for Kuzminov's demise. Shortly after his defection, a Kremlin news program featured pilots and commandos from Russia's military intelligence service vowing retribution.

"We'll find this person and punish him, with all the severity of our country's laws, for treason and for betraying his brothers," declared one commando.

Kuzminov's defection to Ukraine, orchestrated by a covert unit within HUR, Ukraine's military intelligence arm, marked a significant victory for Ukraine. The unit specialises in recruiting Russian fighters and conducting sabotage missions on Russ-

The success of Ukraine's recruitment efforts remains difficult to gauge. While thousands of Russian citizens have joined volunteer units fighting alongside the Ukrainian military, their impact on the balance of power remains minimal, as reported by CNN.

Kuzminov, disillusioned by Russian actions, embarked on his daring flight from western Russia to Ukraine in August 2023. Despite encountering Ukrainian fighters who shot him during the escape, he successfully delivered the helicopter and its cargo to Ukrainian forces.

Following the defection, Kuzminov became a vocal critic of Russia's war policies, touring media outlets and urging others to follow his lead.

Despite Ukraine's attempts to protect him, Kuzminov ultimately relocated to Villajoyosa, a town with a notable presence of Russian organised crime figures.

On February 13, Kuzminov met his demise in the parking garage of his apartment building.

As he approached his vehicle, two assailants emerged from a white Hyundai Tucson, opening fire and fatally injuring him before fleeing the scene.

The murder weapon, a white Hyundai Tucson stolen two days prior, was discovered burned several miles away. Despite the evidence, Spanish authorities have not publicly confirmed Kuzminov's identity, facing challenges in contacting Ukrainian officials for assistance.

Pope Francis calls for Gaza ceasefire in traditional Easter speech

In his address on Sunday, the Pope reiterated his plea for an "immediate ceasefire" in the Israel-Hamas war while also calling for "access to humanitarian aid be ensured to Gaza" and the "prompt release of the hostages." He claimed that war-torn children had "forgotten how to smile."

Due to ill health, the Pope had to cancel events recently or speak less frequently, but on Easter Sunday, the most significant day in the Christian calendar, he spoke the full "Urbi et Orbi" and seemed happy, waving to the crowd.

According to the Vatican, Francis had pulled out a Good Friday service at the last minute "to preserve his health" for the remaining celebrations throughout the weekend, CNN reported.

The Pope has been leading Holy Week liturgies, presiding over five since Thursday, including an Easter Vigil in St. Peter's Basilica on Saturday which lasted more than two hours. The Pope has been presiding over five Holy Week liturgies since Thursday, including an Easter Vigil that lasted more than two hours on Saturday at St. Peter's Basilica. The pope's well-being since last year, has remained a cause for concern since the time he had an operation on his abdomen and was hospitalised with bronchitis. In recent weeks as well, the Pope was admitted to the hospital for tests. Additionally, when he was ill with the flu, bronchitis, or colds, he would often rely on his assistants to read aloud portions of his speeches, CNN reported.

However, Francis has also demonstrated a resolve to partake in Holy Week and Easter to the fullest extent possible—the busiest period of the year for any pope.

The Pope has stated that he sees the pope as a lifelong ministry and that he has no plans to step down. Due to mobility issues, he often uses a wheelchair, although he has said that his "head"--rather than his legs--rules the church.
