RAJENDRA KHATRY CHANDIGARH, DECEMBER 3

Prime Minister Narendra Modi dedicated to the nation the successful implementation of three transformative new criminal laws-Bharativa Nvava Sanhita, Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita and Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam at PEC here today

Speaking on the occasion, Prime Minister said the new criminal laws represent a concrete step towards realizing the ideals enshrined in the Constitution for the benefit of all citizens. He said these laws signify the end of colonial-era laws. The colonial-era laws were the medium of atrocities and exploitation committed by the British when they ruled over India, Modi added.

"The 1857 revolution shook the roots of British rule and in 1860, they brought the IPC and later, the Indian Evidence Act and the CrPC framework came into being. The purpose of those laws was to punish Indians and keep them enslaved," the Prime Minister said.Modi watched a live demonstration simulating a crime scene investigation under the new laws. Union Home Minister Amit Shah said the three new laws have been fully implemented in Chandigarh. "Within three years of the registration of an FIR, one will get justice." he said.

Amit Shah came to Chandigarh on Monday evening to hold consultation in this regard. Earlier it was on August 4 last when Amit Shah visited Chandigarh and launched the e-Sakshya, Nyay Setu, Nyay Shruti and e-Summon apps for the three new criminal laws.He had said that the new laws would prove to be the "biggest" reform witnessed by India in the 21st century. Shah said that after the complete implementation of these laws, India will have the most modern and technology-equipped criminal justice system in the world. The Prime Minister and the Home Minister were accompanied by Punjab Governor and Chandigarh Administrator Gulab

New laws replaced colonial-era: PM

CHANDIGARH: Prime Minister Narendra Modi on Tuesday said the implementation of the three new criminal laws in the country signifies the end of colonial-era laws, even as for decades after attaining independence the laws, unfortunately, continued to revolve around the "penal mindset"

Mr. Modi was addressing a gathering at an event 'Secure Society, Developed In-dia- From Punishment to Justice' held in Chandigarh, to mark the implementation of the three new criminal laws including the Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, and Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam.

Chand Kataria, UT Chandigarh advisor Rajeev Verma and Chandigarh Director General of Police Surendra Singh Yadav.

PM Modi dedicates to nation the successful implementation of three new criminal laws

PM Modi today reviewed the progress of three newly introduced criminal laws aimed at overhauling the criminal justice system in the country. He also witnessed an exhibition on the three new laws.

UT police had a thick FIR register to show it to the PM. According to police data from July 1 (when new laws were implemented in the city) till Nov 18, as many as 1,084 cases were registered in Chandigarh under the new Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS)

Police recorded the crime scene through videography and photography.

Out of 1084 cases, 564 were registered for vehicle lifting and 97 cases were registered under sections in which the punishment is more than 7 years. Forensic teams also visited 97 scenes of crime and collected evidence for examination.

Chandigarh was the first administrative unit in the country where 100 per cent implementation of all three laws were completed first. Newly recruited Indian Police Service (IPS) officers from across the country attended the event on enforcement, judicial procedures and evidence management on the new laws with Chandigarh Police delivering a detailed presentation on the integration and functioning of various applications.

RAWEL BHINDER PATIALA, DEC 3

Continuing mission rozgar, the Punjab Chief Minister Bhagwant Singh Mann on Tuesday announced that though the state has so far provided jobs to nearly 50,000 youth in the state but it will soon launch a massive employment drive in key departments like Health, Education and others to further provide govern ment jobs to the youth. Addressing the gathering while handing over appointment letters to the youth here today, the Chief Minister said that the state government is committed to provide ample of opportunities to the youth to excel in life and so far around 50,000 government

Suspense ends in Maha, Eknath Shinde to take oath as Dy CM

MUMBAI: Eknath Shinde has finally relented to serve as the Deputy chief minister in the incoming Mahayuti government. He will take oath as the Deputy CM along with Nationalist Congress Party's (NCP's) Ajit Pawar on Thursday.

Devendra Fadnavis is poised to return as the Chief Minister of Maharashtra, India Today reported citing sources. The swearing-in ceremony will take place at Mumbai's Azad Maidan on December 5. Prime Minister Narendra Modi and other prominent NDA leaders are expected to attend the ceremony. After the oath taking ceremony, the cabinet portfolios and berths will be finalised for the three Mahayuti allies -- BJP, Shiv Sena and NCP. The Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) is likely to get 21-22 portfolios whereas the Ajit Pawarled NCP is likely to get 9-10 cabinet berths. The Shiv Sena had sought 16 portfolios but is likely to get 12, sources added

CHANDIGARH, WEDNESDAY

The Chief Minister called upon youth that there is no short cut for success and the sole key of triumph was hard work. He asked the youth to work hard and keep trying to achieve success in life so that they can achieve their desired goals in life. Bhagwant Singh Mann said that the state government will leave no stone unturned to facilitate the youth in this noble cause. The Chief Minister reiterated the commitment of the state government to ensure the well being of youth and opening new vistas of employment for them.

Gram panchayats to take part in Deepotsav at Gita Mahotsav on Dec 11

CHANDIGARH: Gita Mahotsav will be celebrated at 48 Kos pilgrimages on the land of the Mahabharata. Gita Vani will be heard at all 182 pilgrimages of Kurukshetra, Karnal, Kaithal, Panipat and Jind districts. A Swachhata Abhiyan will be conducted at the pilgrimages along with Gita Paath. Along with this, cultural programmes, Gita Paath and Gita Yagna will be organized at the pilgrimages of 48 Kos. The purpose of organizing Gita Mahotsav at the pilgrimages is to connect the youth with the universality of the Gita. Along with this, Gita Paath will be organized for elders and women. There will also be original presentations of Haryanvi culture through Haryanvi songs and the theme of these songs will be on topics related to the life of Lord Krishna. A Deepotsav will also be organized on December 11 at all the pilgrimage places of 48 Kos. Gram Panchayats will participate in Deepotsav.

SP Chauhan writes to CM for ban on mobile in schools, colleges

SHIV KUMAR SHARMA KARNAL, DECEMBER 3

After mentioning the increasing spread of drugs in Haryana, SP Chauhan, the real hero of The Struggling Man and the convener of Navchetna Manch, has written a letter to the Chief Minister demanding a complete ban on mobile phones in schools and colleges. He has said through the letter that even during study time in schools and colleges, students' attention is focused on mobile phones, due to which their studies are getting disrupted and their career is also getting ruined, students are not able to achieve the target where they have to reach after studying and keep regretting it throughout their life, this is not only a loss to the students but also to the state and the country because students are the future of the country, so it is the duty of both the government and the society to save them from the dreadful consequences of this Internet. Due to the indiscriminate use of the internet, today our young students and even school children are falling prey to obscene, nude and vulgar programs prepared by the enemies of the society, the conse quences of which are very fatal. Therefore, there should be complete ban on mobile phones in schools and colleges, not only this, strict action should be taken against the institutions which do not follow this rule.

While we have got a great opportunity to know and understand the world through the internet, on the contrary, our children have been destroyed culturally and character-wise by its misuse. Google's world is full of countless dirty and ignorant programs, all of which are for earning money and increas ing TRP, due to which our school and college children are becoming stubborn, this is also a reason for the increase in crime. Shri Chauhan said that the use of mobile phones is right up to a limit but there should be a complete ban on it in schools and colleges so that children and vouth can build their future. Due to mobile, children have forgotten their social fabric, they don't even have time for their parents, siblings, even after returning from school and college, they spend most of their time on mobile, which is the responsibility of the parents but the The government should take the responsibility of a complete ban on mobile phones in schools and colleges, for this Navchetna Manch and its supporting social organisations are ready to cooperate with the government in every possible way. Some children whose goal is to move forward and progress have also made the internet a medium of their progress they search in it only what is for their curriculum or progress but the number of chil-dren with such thinking is less.

The state's prominent social worker SP Chauhan, who is deeply sensitive to every sensitive issue, has ap-pealed to Chief Minister Nayab Singh Saini and the state's Education Minister Mahipal Dhanda to impose a complete ban on mobile phones in schools and colleges so that the young future generation of Haryana can move ahead in their career as well as understand the dignity of relationships deeply. Some time ago the real hero of the movie SP Chauhan Struggling Man, SP Chauhan had written a letter to the Chief Minister and appealed for taking a concrete decision to stop the increasing prevalence of drug abuse in schools and colleges.

Muslim community comes in support of Hindus in Bangladesh: Khurshid Alam

SHIV KUMAR SHARMA KARNAL, DEC 3

Former media coordinator of Haryana Haj Committee and BJP leader Khurshid Alam has said that to stop the atrocities on Hindus in Bangladesh, the Muslim community of Haryana should come forward and present the age-old example of patriotism. Khurshid Alam, chairman of All Haryana Muslim Welfare Society, appealed to all the Muslim community people of Hary ana state and said that in this crucial time, there was a need to stand with the victims of Bangladesh and showed support of the Muslim community.

To stop the atrocities on all minorities along with Hindus in Bangladesh, the people of the Muslim community should come forward and present an example of mutual brotherhood. Appealing to the people of Muslim society Khurshid Alam has said that while demanding the release of Saint Chinmay Krishna Das of ISK-CON temple in Bangladesh, the leaders of all the social organizations who were detained there without any reason should be released as soon as possible, in which he demanded the safety of lakhs of Hindus and minority people. Like him, he told the Muslim society that whoever guaranteed the safety of Hindus and minority people in Bangladesh, he demanded from Narendra Modi, Prime Minister, Nayab Singh Saini, Chief Minister of Haryana that the Ministry of External Affairs wanted to target the victims of Bangladesh by terrorizing them through India. He called upon his Muslim society, now the time has come that more and more of them should become supportive of the people of Hindu religion in Bangladesh.

Kisan Sabha held in IFFCO Nano Model Village Dayanagar

SHIV KUMAR SHARMA KARNAL, DEC 3

IFFCO organized Kisan Sabha in IFFCO Nano Model Village Dayanagar under Nano Fertilizer Awareness Campaign. IFFCO Se-nior Area Manager Dr. Niranjan Singh said that IFFCO has made Nigdu village a Nano Model Village Cluster in district including five villages Nigdu, Karsadod, Koir, Dayanagar and Majra Rodan. To encourage use of IFFCO nano fertilizers in these villages, IFFCO is giving 25% subsidy on total cost of drone spray along with nano urea nano DAP and Sagarika. He said that farmers of these villages can come to IFFCO Kisan Bazaar Nigdu and get their registration done and get subsidy from here. He discussed in detail with farmers about impor tance of Urea Plus and Nano DAP. While discussing about Nano Urea Plus, Dr. Niranjan Singh said that Nano Urea Plus is an alternative to urea and it will be used on crop in one month by spraying 500 ml bottle in 125 liters of water in one acre, so its use capacity is more than traditional urea. Plants absorb it through leaves and stems. Like urea, nano urea does not pollute underground water, land and environment. He told that Nano DAP is also an alternative to traditional DAP seedlings, 5 ml per liter of water and remaining 250 ml is to be mixed in 100 liters of water and sprayed on crop of 30-35 days. He told that IFFCO is also providing drone facility to farmers for spraying nano fertilizers where farmers and it is also effective in increasing productivity of crops. It is cheaper than traditional DAP. Nano DAP 500 ml is used in one acre, which will be used in 250 ml quantity for seeds 5 ml per kg of seeds or tuber, can get their fields sprayed using drones. He gave information about water soluble fertilizers, Sagarika, bio-fertilizers, their usage method, usage quantity 48 farmers participated.

Arohan Welfare Society celebrates Disabled Day

MM International School, Mullana organises annual festival 'Synergia'

RAHUL KOHLI

YAMUNANAGAR: Arohan Welfare Society celebrated International Disabled Day on Tuesday. The society runsty runs a day care center for the rights, respect and welfare of disabled people and for the happiness of the disabled.

On the International Day disabled people celebrated the day by doing musical chair painting and playing musical instruments.

President Dr. Ritu Soni said that all this therapy helped in improving the mental life of these Divyangs and increasing their self-awareness. Coordinator Rekha said, if hard work was done on these Divyangs, they can also lead a normal life and can live happily. Physiotherapist Dr Gurleen said that theye can improve the condition of disabled people to a great extent through physiotherapy. JAIBEER RANA BARARA, DEC 3

Like every year, this time too, various colours of the world were seen in the annual function of M.M.I.S.Mulana along with positive thinking.

On this occasion, Ambala Division Commissioner, IAS Mrs. Geeta Bharti attended the function as the chief guest and presented an unforgettable dignity to the event. Along with her, MM Trust's treasurer Dr. Vishal Garg, Mrs. Deepika Garg was also pres-ent. The chief guest inaugurated the program by lighting the lamp. After this, the school director Dr. Parul Garg and the school principal Mrs. Sunita Dosaj thanked the chief guest and the members present there. When the children and senior students of the school gave their wonderful and charming performances, everyone was mesmerized. While the children won the hearts of the audience with a very beautiful welcome song, the melodious sound of 'Saraswati Vandana' made the auditorium resonate. As soon as the rock stars started dancing to the song Duniya Ki Saar Kar Lo on the stage, not only children but even adults got mesmerized by them. Whether it is the school band or the dances of different countries, all the presentations were better than the other. The children dancing in joy looked like accomplished artists. Navras presentation and Durga Puja embodying the various forms of nine Rasas The zeal and energy with which the artists of MMIS portrayed the various emotions of Mahishasura Mardani stunned everyone. After this, the Head Boy and Head Girl of the school presented a report based on the annual achievements of the school which was appreciated by everyone. Without Punjabi Bhangra, the completeness of any cultural function cannot be imagined and when the Bhangra was performed by M.M.I.S.K. stars, then what can be said. Bhangra is for everyone in Puniab. The students were reminded of the fragrance of the soil of the village. The members of the school management committee and the distinguished guest appreciated the efforts of the students and wished them a bright future and the function ended with the national anthem.

the common people. In this series, in Narayangarh too, small Samadhan camps are being organized at the sub-division level on every working day. It is being organized in the conference hall of the Secretariat.

On this occasion, DSP Mukesh Kumar, Naib Tehsildar Sanjeev Atri, SDO of Public Health Department Ankush Sehgal and officers/employees of other departments were present.

Get solar mapping done in all villages of state, Vij tells officials

BUREAU

CHANDIGARH: Haryana Energy Minister Sh. Anil Vij directed to get solar mapping done in all the villages of the state, giving priority to farmers. He said that the use of solar energy will help in providing cheap and sustainable energy in rural areas along with environmental protection and this will promote solar energy. This will also reduce the problem of power cuts. For this, the minister asked officials to prepare a comprehensive action plan. He held an important meeting with the officers of the Electricity Department today. Vij directed to implement the system of surcharge waiver and taking the outstanding amount in installments to provide relief to the consumers. He emphasized on ensuring that no consumer faces financial inconvenience. To improve the power distribution system, the minister ordered immediate upgradation of transformers and conductors in areas where it is required.

RAINEESH SHARMA HAMIRPUR, DEC 3

On Tuesday, workers of the Water Wing under an NH construction company stopped work and blocked company vehicles to protest against non-payment of their salaries. They alleged that they haven't been paid for six months to a year, which has severely impacted their livelihoods.

Employees Amit Kumar, Krishna Kumar, Manoj Kumar, and Vineet Kumar revealed that they have been working on pipeline projects since December, yet they have only received one month's salary during this time. Repeated requests to company officials regarding their dues have been met with evasive responses.

Amit Kumar shared that they have been working under IPH's Surya

Construction Company for three years. While their last payment was made in November 2023, salary disbursement has stalled once again. He also alleged that when they protested, Supervisor Shrikant threatened them with the issuance of debit notes and punitive actions. The employees have vowed not to return to work until their dues are cleared, emphasizing that their families depend on these disbursed earnings, and survival accountant's return.

DINESH AGARWAL

SHIMLA: BJP national spokesperson Gaurav Bhatia launched a scathing attack on the Congress government in Himachal Pradesh as it approaches the completion of two years in power. In a press conference held on the eve of the Congress's celebration of its tenure, Bhatia questioned the basis of their celebrations, calling it a "festival of destruction." He alleged that Chief Minister Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu's government has become synonymous with broken promises, corruption, and poor governance. Bhatia accused the Congress leadership, including Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi Vadra, of guaranteeing corruption wherever they go. He claimed that the Sukhu government has not only failed to deliver on its election promises but has also plunged the state into financial chaos. "The law and order situation is in shambles, while Sukhu remains unbothered," Bhatia remarked, highlighting the rising issues of women's safety and public discontent. He criticized the closure of institutions and welfare programs initiated by the previous BJP government, such as the Himcare scheme, which had registered 292 hospitals across the state, and other initiatives like the Sahara Yojana and the Ayushman Bharat scheme.

A Growing City with Stagnant Development

Kharar, with an estimated population of over 3 lakhs, is witnessing rapid urban growth. Despite ample funds in the Municipal Council's accounts—reportedly in the range of crores—development remains lackluster. Many areas resemble slums, and basic urban challenges such as sanitation, infrastructure, and housing persist due to the lack of stable leadership.

Local residents have ex pressed frustration over the perpetual state of flux. They question whether the Punjak Government lacks capable officers for Kharar or simply neg lects the city's needs. Frequent transfers disrupt continuity, as officers barely familiarize themselves with Kharar's problems before being reas signed. A Question of Priorities

The lack of consistent leadership in Kharar Municipal Council is emblematic of broader issues within the Local Self Government Department While the staff welcomed Ravi Kumar with enthusiasm today, residents remain skeptical about the duration of his tenure and the possibility of meaningful change under his leadership.

RBI directs banks to activate frozen accounts with special campaigns inconvenience. Highlighting

AGENCY MUMBAI, DEC 3

The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) has directed banks to take immediate steps to reduce the number of inoperative or frozen accounts and to make the activation process smoother and more hassle-free.

To achieve this, the RBI has advised banks to organize special campaigns focused on activating inoperative or frozen accounts.

Additionally, banks have been encouraged to facilitate Aadhaar updates for customers at branches that provide Aadhaar-related services. This initiative aims to assist account holders. particularly those from underprivileged sections of society, in reactivating their accounts with ease.

RBI said "The banks may also organise special campaigns for facilitating activation of inoperative/ frozen accounts. Besides, the banks may also facilitate Aadhaar updation for measure, the RBI noted that many frozen or inoperative accounts belong to people from economically weaker sections. The central bank urged banks to adopt an empathetic approach in handling such cases, ensuring that the process is simplified for these customers. It added "the process of activation of such accounts

the importance of this including by enabling seamless updation of KYC mobile/internet banking, non-home branches, Customer Identification Process, etc". Furthermore, the RBI pointed out instances where accounts of beneficiaries

under government schemes like Direct Benefit Transfer (DBT) or Electronic Benefit Transfer (EBT) were frozen due to pending or periodic KYC updates.

The central bank has instructed banks to segregate these accounts and ensure uninterrupted credit of DBT/EBT funds while addressing KYC-related issues efficiently.

These steps are part of RBI's broader efforts to improve financial inclusion and reduce barriers for marginalized sections of society in accessing banking services. Banks have been urged to act urgently and ensure customer convenience in resolving account-related issues.

Chandra will tour the state to speed up cleanliness

KARNAL: Before the Swachhta Survey, on the instructions of Chief Minister Nayab Saini, Swachh Bharat Mission Haryana Executive Vice Chairman Subhash Chandra will tour the state from December 4 to speed up the cleanliness campaign and review the progress made so far. By going to each district, he will directly communicate with officials, public representatives, social workers, representatives of religious and business organizations and will motivate them to join the Swachh Bharat Mission. To connect the people of the state with the mission, Subhash Chandra has already taken out Swachhta Yatra in the state four times. This will be his fifth programme during his tenure in which he will seek answers from the officials on the progress made so far in the Swachh Bharat Mission. Swachh Bharat Mission was implemented in the state since Prime Minister Narendra Modi became the Prime Minister of the country. Haryana is the first state where a state level task force has been formed for this. Senior officials as well as non-government members have been nominated in this task force. Apart from this, task forces have also been formed at the district level. Giving information about the tour, Vice Chairman of Swachh Bharat Mission Subhash Chandra said that Swachh Bharat Mission is not only the dream of Prime Minister Narendra Modi but it is also the resolution of Chief Minister Navab Singh Saini.

Time to reflect

President Droupadi Murmu led the nation in paying homage to the founding fathers of the Indian Constitution on the 75th anniversary of its adoption on November 26. She noted that "the Constituent Assembly accomplished the huge task of framing the constitution for a newly independent country. On that day, through the Constituent Assembly, we, the people of India, adopted, enacted and gave to ourselves this Constitution." Of ten overlooked, and it was so on this occasion too, are the formidably difficult circumstances which prevailed in the country when the Constitution was framed; hence, the accomplishment of the Constitution-makers was all the greater.

The Muslim League, aided by the departing British, had succeeded in ensuring that the price of freedom was the Partition. That process led to the movements of huge numbers of people from their homes and unimaginable carnage and butchery. This led the administration of a newly-independent country — technically still a British dominion though independent in its functioning — to face the vast and complex challenge of settling lakhs of refugees and of assuaging their justified anger. In addition, the government of the independent country had to integrate the princely states within the Union, a task made incredibly complex by the British Parliament making them 'independent' in the India Independence Act, 1947 under which it transferred power to the dominions of India and Pakistan.

Along with the domestic tasks of stabilising India and changing the habits of its administrative structures away from their colonial moorings, the country had to also almost immediately wage war and learn painful lessons about the cruel realities of international realpolitik. While remaining conscious of what was happening around them, the Constitution-framers had to insulate themselves from these goings-on as well. For their task, above all, was to provide an enduring vehicle to take a feudal and segmented society and polity with a stunted economy onto progressive paths so that India could take its 'rightful place in the comity of nations'.

It is a tribute to the Constitution-makers and the government of independent India that they were not swayed by the passions that had been let loose in those dreadful years but remained true to the values of the main current of the freedom movement which finds expression in the Constitution's Preamble, the chapter on Fundamental Rights, and the Directive Principles of State Policy. The Indian people must always keep in mind, especially in our present contentious and divisive times, that the Constitution makers completely rejected any notion of a particular faith or cultural tradition becoming the basis of India's nationalism and the treatment of its citizens.

It's time to celebrate new global narratives of cinema that IFFI could create, with India being at centre of attention!

BY VANI TRIPATHI TIKOO

The 55th International Film Festival of India, popularly known as IFFI, just ended last week, on 28th November, 2024. India's own film festival had been exhaustive and exploratory this year, with many new, innovative things for the cine goers from all across the world. India's renowned film maker ShekharKapur was the brand new festival director and the mammoth steering committee included industry's reputed names Bobby Bedi, KhusbooSundar, Prasoon Joshi andJerome Pillard. I was also a member of the steering committee.

The 18th edition of the Film Bazaar this year, which is presently the largest film market of South Asia, had 350+ film projects featured in the various verticals of the Film Market. The Bazaar team worked tirelessly under the guidance of Jerome Pillard, ex-Market Head of 'Marche du Cannes', who has taken over as the Advisor of Film Bazaar.Lots of producers participated in Film Bazaar, which was about mentoring mid-career success level producers on how to pitch a film, budget it and make it a global success. This year's film bazaar was one of the largest yet. The bazaar was a buzz, bringing in about 2000 delegates!Countries including Australia, Bhutan, Belarus, Hong Kong, Japan, Kyrgyzstan, Russia, Saudi Arabia, Spain, and the United Kingdom were represented, demonstrating the broad international appeal of the event. These nations, with their unique filmmaking cultures and approaches, underscored the importance of cross-border collaboration in a rapidly evolving industry. The participation of these diverse countries highlighted Film Bazaar's role as an international platform that not only facilitates dialogue but also promotes film industry exchanges that are key to the growth and sustainability of cinema worldwide. The discussions covered a wide range of topics, including film policy development, filming incentives, and the economic benefits of film production, ensuring that all participants, both international and local, could contribute to shaping the future of global cinema.

Better Man, one of the biggest global releases of this year, was the opening film for the festival. The semi-biographical film about British pop singer Robbie Williams, directed by Australian film-maker Michael Gracey, will release in theatreson 26th December. The closing film was'Dry Season' by Czech Director BohdanSláma, who is known for his innovative works in European films and his take on urban civilizational crises seen in societies. The SatyajitRay Lifetime Achievement Award went to one of the iconic masters of cinema - Phillip Noyce. The Australian film director is recognized globally for films like Bone Collector, Dead Calm, Sliver, Rabbit-Proof Fence, among many of his other works. It was an honour for the festival organizers to have Phillip Noyce come personally to receive the Lifetime Achievement award!

The International Cinema section was very, very vibrant, having 12 films thatcompeted for the coveted 'Golden Peacock'.

The Golden Peacock for Best Film in the 55th IFFI went to Lithuanian film'Toxic' by director and screenwriter SauleBliuvaite. Romanian Director BogdanMuresanu bagged the Best Director award for 'The New Year that Never Came'.Clément Faveau took home the Best Actor (Male) award for his nuanced and captivating portrayal in the French film 'Holy Cow'. This French film's director Louise Courvoisier also received the Special Jury Award for her debut film. The Best Actress award was jointly given to VestaMatulyt? and IevaRupeikait? for their roles in 'Toxic'. American Director Sarah Friedland was awarded the Best Debut Feature Film award for her pojgnant narrative 'Familiar Touch'. Australia was the focus country in the festival this year. Within the Australian bouquet, there were producer round-tables at the Film Bazaar, where the co-production treaty was discussed. Australia is the latest signatory of the co-production treaty which found fruition in 2023. The Australia team, with support from Screen Australia, was present in full strength and led by two amazing ladies - Screen Australia's Chief Operating Officer Grainne Brunsdonand CEO Deirdre Brennan. The Australiandelegates participated in the festival with full enthusiasm, and many of their producers came to pitch their projects.

This year there were 15 International Premieres, the largest since the start of IFFI!Many domestic premieres also happened in the 55th IFFI, which included films of popular stars, like ManojBajpayee's'Despatch',BomanIrani's'Mehta Boys' and many others.

The International Jury headed by India's renowned film maker AshutoshGowarikar had big globally well-known film personalities as jury members. The Oscar-winning film editor Jill Bilcock, who has edited BazLuhrmannm films like Strictly Ballroom (1992), Romeo + Juliet (1996), and Moulin Rouge! (2002), and also ShekharKapur's films, was a jury member. Then there was Anthony Chen, a winner at Cannes Film Festival. Fran Borgia, one of the new voices of independent cinema globally from Spain, and UK's Film Producer Elizabeth Karlsen, who is the winner of many BAFTA awards, were also amongst International Jury members.

An important vertical of the film festival was the Masterclassesaddressed by prominent names from cinema world like Phillip Noyce himself, Australian Academy award winning cinematographer John Seale - who was the DoPfor 'Mad Max: Furv Road'. The English Patient', and animation director Chris Kirshbaum, who is the creator of Avengers. The legendary AR Rahman addressed a masterclass and also delivered the LataMangeshkar Memorial Lecture this year. 'Headhunting to Beatboxing' - a musi cal documentary produced by Rahman also made its Asia Premiere in the film festival. VidhuVinod Chopra spoke on his film '12th Fail' which was screened with audio descriptions and sign language interpretation. AnupamKher spoke on 'Power of Failure' in a Masterclass. Who better than him to speak on it, as he has decades of cinema and theatre experience behind him?

There were amazing panel discussion sessions. I moderated a session on 'Women's Safety and Cinema'where eminent panelists Imtiaz Ali, Suhasini Rani Ratnam, BhumiPednekar andKhushbooSundar, which explored the realms of safe spaces for women who work in films, objectification of women in films which happens everywhere in the world, and also how empowered roles for women in cinema is a new normal today. In another interesting session moderated by BoddyBedi, renowned writer FarrukhDhondy, documentary film -maker Lucy Walker,Spanish producer Anna Saura, internationally recognized actor Tannistha Chatterjee and I had come together to talk about 'stories that travel', that is, cinema without borders.

In the knowledge series, the team from the state of Madhya Pradesh came in full strength, with teams of 'Stree 2' represented by actor Abhishek Banerjee and director Amar Kaushik and youngsters from the Oscar nominated film 'Lapataa Ladies'. They spoke about how film policies of the state are encouraging young film makers to shoot their films in MP.

PrasarBharatilaunched its OTT platform 'WAVES' in the opening ceremony of IFFI, with a promise to bring diverse Indian content to a global audience.This year's VFX & Tech Pavilion, supported by FICCI, was another focal point of the event, attracting major international industry players. The pavilion was a testament to the role of technology in transforming filmmaking, offering a glimpse into the future of cinematic experiences through groundbreaking innovations.Market leaders like Netflix, Sony and others presented their offerings and products in the tech pavilion.

The festival had special features for people with special needs, like sign language interpreter at opening and closing ceremonies, press conferences and sessions.Mainstream Films like '12thFail' were screened for people with visual and hearing impairments.

It's time to celebrate the new global narratives that the festival could create, with India being at the centre of attention, with a Grand Prix at Cannes by Payal Kapadia and many accolades which India received, including the Oscar, in the bygone year.

Hope the festival will be more vibrant and exuberant next year, for India's cinephiles and film makers all across the world.

Cooperative renaissance opens new doors to development and prosperity

India which is producing 231 million tonnes of milk annually is the largest milk producer in the world, contributing approximately one-fourth of global production. Through cooperatives, millions of small and marginal farmers have been united, creating a network of over 1.7 lakh dairy cooperative societies in the country and establishing massive plants with a processing capacity of 100 million liters of milk per day.

This historic success is the result of seven decades of relentless hard work and efforts by cooperative institutions across the country. In India, dairy is not limited to milk production; it serves as a livelihood source for over 80 million families, empowers women, provides nutrition and financial security, and acts as a key driver of inclusive rural de velopment.

The establishment of a separate and dedicated Ministry of Fisheries, Animal Husbandry, and Dairying in 2019, followed by the formation of the Ministry of Cooperation in 2021, reflects the Government of India's faith in the cooperative model and its potential to bring prosperity to the nation. This has advanced the vision of "Sehkar Se Samridhi" strengthening the cooperative movement in the country. Within a short span of three years, the ministry has initiated several significant measures for the holistic and inclusive development of the entire cooperative sector.

Dairy Cooperatives in India

India has over 8 lakh cooperative societies operating across 29 different sectors, serving nearly 29 crore members. Among these, agriculture-related cooperatives, such as Primary Agricultural Credit Societies (PACS), dairy, and fisheries cooperatives, play a crucial role in providing rural communities with access to markets, credit, and technical services. These cooperatives facilitate the procurement of inputs and the marketing of products, ensuring that farmers get fair prices in the marketplace.

Today, India's dairy cooperative network comprises 23 state-level marketing federations and apex organizations, 268 district milk unions, and over 1.44 lakh active village-level societies with approximately 1.72 crore members. This network collects around 660 lakh kilograms of milk daily and sells 440 lakh liters of milk per day.

In dairy cooperatives, nearly 70% of the workforce in the dairy sector is comprised of women. These cooperatives provide women with unique opportunities for social and economic empowerment. They inspire women to build self-confidence, morale, and develop leadership skills. Today, women account for about 35% of the total membership of dairy cooperatives, with over 61 million women being active members. Additionally, around 48,000 women-specific dairy cooperatives are operational across the country. Similarly, Milk Producer Organizations (MPOs) also offer women opportunities for active participation. The cooperative dairy sector in India is evolving from "women's participation" to a dairy industry led by "women's leadership."

Cooperative Renaissance

The primary goal is to strengthen the cooperative movement and take it to the grassroots level in order to realize Prime Minister Shri Narendra Modi's vision of "Sehkar Se Samridhi". Under the leadership of Union Home and Cooperation Minister Shri Amit Shah, the Ministry of Cooperation has set the objective of establishing new PACS (Primary Agricultural Credit Societies), dairy, and fisheries cooperatives in panchayats and villages where they currently do not exist. Additionally, the existing PACS, dairy, and fisheries cooperatives will be further empowered with the support of NABARD (National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development), NDDB (National Dairy Development Board), and NFDB (National Fisheries Development Board).

To revive cooperatives, it was essential to transform grassroots-level cooperatives into prosperous business entities. It is crucial that all panchayats/villages come under the coverage of a capable PACS/dairy/fisheries cooperative. This will enable millions of small and marginal farmer members to gain equal benefits from regional development and help in achieving rural prosperity. There are approximately 2.7 lakh gram panchayats (GPs) in the country. Around 1.6 lakh gram panchayats do not have a PACS (Primary Agricultural Credit Society), and nearly 2 lakh gram panchayats lack a dairy cooperative society. In this regard, in February 2023, the Union Cabinet approved the establishment of 2 lakh PACS, dairy, and fisheries cooperatives over the next five years. To ensure timely implementation and monitoring of the plan, the Home and Cooperation Minister launched a Standard Operating Procedure (SOP) guide.

According to the plan, NABARD will establish approximately 70,000 new multi-purpose PACS (M-PACS), NDDB will form and strengthen around 1,03,000 dairy cooperative societies (DCS), and the National Fisheries Development Board (NFDB) will establish approximately 11,500 fisheries cooperative societies (FCS). Additionally, state governments will set up around 25,000 new M-PACS, dairy, and fisheries cooperatives.

White Revolution 2.0

In the last six decades, through the collaborative efforts of NDDB and the state and central governments, approximately 1.44 lakh active dairy cooperatives have been established across the country. Now, under the "White Revolution 2.0" initiative, there is a plan to form 1.03 lakh new multi-purpose dairy cooperative societies (M-DCS) and empower existing ones over the next five years. This will be a significant achievement and will take milk production and distribution in the country to new heights

Multi-purpose PACS (M-PACS) are emerging as commercial hubs. By adopting new model bylaws, these societies are now conducting over 25 different business activities, including dairy.

New Multi-State Cooperatives: From Local to Global

Three national-level multi-state cooperatives have been established to link grassroots-level cooperatives to national and international value chains: 1. National Cooperative Organics Limited (NCOL) 2. Bhartiya Beej Sahakari Samiti Limited (BBSSL) 3. National Cooperative Export Limited (NCEL)

These initiatives represent a revolutionary step in the history of India's cooperative movement. They aim to connect local cooperatives with broader markets, enhance their capabilities, and open new avenues for growth. By focusing on organic products, quality seeds, and exports, these cooperatives are positioned to bring cooperative enterprises into the global spotlight, benefiting farmers and rural communities across the country.

The National Cooperative Organics Limited (NCOL)aims to realize the potential of organic products and create a healthy agricultural ecosystem. Bhartiya Beej Sahakari Samiti Limited (BBSSL) promotes the production, processing, and distribution of high-quality seeds. Meanwhile, National Cooperative Export Limited (NCEL) works to enhance cooperative trade and promote Indian products globally.

NDDB is the main promoter of NCOL. The establishment of NCOL aligns with the government's "Whole of the Government Approach," which involves collaboration with relevant ministries, departments, and agencies. NCOL operates as a comprehensive organization for the collection, procurement, certification, testing, branding, processing, storage, and marketing of organic products.

Similarly, to improve crop yields and develop a system for the conservation and promotion of indigenous natural seeds, BBSSL has been established to produce, procure, and distribute quality seeds under a single brand through the network of cooperatives. BBSSL will help increase the production of quality seeds in India through cooperatives.

To create a global identity for domestic cooperative products, NCEL has been established as an umbrella organization to facilitate exports for the entire cooperative sector of the country. This committee will promote cooperative efforts in agriculture, horticulture, dairy, poultry, livestock, fisheries, sugar, spices, organic products, fertilizers, and more.

Conclusion

Cooperative institutions have built a strong infrastructure in the country. By better coordination and utilization of these resources, the collective impact can be further enhanced.

To increase the income of member farmers, cooperatives will need to adopt new strategies. These include the use of advanced and modern technologies, improving operational efficiencies, diversifying income sources, and promoting partnerships. By implementing these initiatives, cooperatives can explore new possibilities and strengthen their role in the economy.

Powerful Health Benefits Of Drinking Milk

glass of milk is often A considered as a whole meal because it contains considered as a whole nine essential nutrients. We're sure your mother and grandmothers narrated lists of the health benefits a glass of milk possesses while forcing you to empty yours. And we're here to tell you that the wise women of your life were right. It's time to consider cutting back on those cups of coffee and maybe replacing them with just plain ole milk. 1. Great Source of Calcium

Let's get the obvious out of the way first. Calcium doesn't just protect your bones from being brittle. Calcium also plays a big role in literally making your heart pump by allowing your muscles to contract, a study by Havard suggested. It enables blood to clot, preventing you from bleeding out to death every time you cut yourself. It strengthens your bones and plays a key role in the health of your teeth, nails as wellashair.

2. Reduces The Risk of Obesity

Weight Watchers, this one is for you. A cup of milk can give you the feeling of being full. Moreover, it even satisfies your various cravings by simply adding anything from chocolate powder to fruits. Just be sure to not add excessive sugar and you've found yourself the healthiest drink you can consume. What's more. it costs nothing close to the expensive diet stuff people body comes from our bones and usually invest in. teeth. And for the latter, there is 3. Helps Make Your Teeth Healthy Most of the calcium in our

araori(KAMAL SHARMA) Devendra Kamra, member of the District Grievance Redressal Committee and coordinator of the Panchanad Memorial Trust in Taraori, emphasized that the ongoing membership drive by the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) is significantly strengthening the party's organizational structure. Speaking to journalists in Tarawadi, Kamra shared that over 12 crore people have joined the party so far, drawn by its welfare-oriented policies and commitment to public service. Kamra highlighted that the primary objective of this membership campaign is not just to increase numbers but to expand the reach of the BJP's ideology and governance model. He noted that under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, the drive has transformed into a mass movement, with an ambitious goal of enrolling 50 lakh new members in Haryana alone. Wide Public Engagement The campaign has witnessed enthusiastic participation from various segments of society, including youth, women, and other communities. Kamra pointed out that BJP representatives and dedicated workers are actively engaged at the grassroots level to spread awareness about the party's policies and initiatives. "The campaign is a platform to reinforce the values and ideals on which the BJP stands. It serves as a bridge between the party's vision and the aspirations of the common people," Kamra stated. He added that BJP's efforts are not merely about embership expansion but about building a strong, ideologically-driven organization.

Driving Force Behind the Campaign Kamra attributed the success of the campaign to the welfare policies introduced unde the leadership of Prime Minister Modi, which have resonated deeply with the people. He also commended the party's leaders and workers for their commitment to connecting with the public through extensive outreach programs at the local level.

drinking a cup of milk a couple of times a day could help prevent cavities and tooth decay However, it should be noted, that the calcium in milk can only be absorbed by your body when vitamin D is around. So make sure that the milk you drink is fortified with it by your manufacturer.

4. Helps Prevent Heartburn Various foods in our diet are usually more acidic and spicy in nature than we expect or are used to. These, then, become the culprits of harrowing acidity and stomach woes. To avoid being in these kinds of sticky situations, it's advised to have a glass of milk after a meal that has smoke smoking out of your ears. Studies suggest milk has a cooling effect that coats.

The Royal Enfield Goan Classic 350

handigarh : Drawing inspiration from the '70s and '80s iconic Goan moto-culture, Royal Enfield, global leader in the mid-size motorcycle segment (250-750cc), launched the Goan Classic 350 - a bobber-inspired motorcycle, that celebrates and embodies non-conformity and free-spirited lifestyle. The Goan Classic 350 is a tribute to the kaleidoscope of self-expression that formed India's unique Goan moto-culture. It is a child of the freewheeling counterculture that emerged in Goa in the seventies and eighties - a four-stroked, sun-soaked hippie machine, always on the path of self-discovery and self-liberation.

With every curve and contour, the Goan Classic is inspired by the strippeddown and 'tripped-up' creations of Goa's custom builders, blending the spirit of a bobber and Goan free-spirited lifestyle. The chopped fenders, mid-ape handlebars, ergonomically placed low-slung seats and the rear silhouette echo the days when riders stripped their machines down to the bare essentials, turning them into reflections of their personality. Each rev of the engine hums with the spirit of Goa's golden groove, just as the sundrenched days invite you to enjoy every moment. With true bobber-inspired DNA, the motorcycle is characterised by the single-seat design, floating rider seat, and whitewall tyres on tubeless spoke wheels that evoke the iconic customisations of bobber culture. Speaking about the new Goan Classic 350, Siddhartha Lal, Managing Director - Eicher Motors Ltd.

said, "The Goan Classic is a heartfelt tribute to the spirit of freedom and individuality that Royal Enfield has championed for decades. To me, this motorcycle is an embodiment of the cool, laid-back Goan moto-culture, and Royal Enfield's passion to build motorcycles that are more than just machines, and are a means to self-discovery and expression. This motorcycle feels right at home, not just on the streets of Goa, but brings the relaxed, and easy Goan vibe to free-spirited and freewheeling riders everywhere

adwa, 3 December (Vijay Kaushik): In an effort to provide free medical services to rural communities, Member of Parliament (MP) Naveen Jindal's medical van reached the villages of Kadami and Maniarpur in Ladwa on Tuesday. Dr. Balinder Singh reported that 61 people from Kadami and 55 from Maniarpur were checked, and 10 lab tests were conducted. After the check-ups, all villagers were given free medicines. Alongside the medical services, Naveen Sankalp Camps were also organized, where 79 villagers had their pension, Aadhaar, and family identification cards updated. Four individuals were also informed about the Naveen Jindal Yashasvi Scholarship Scheme. The MP's office in charge, Dharmvir Singh, stated that MP Jindal's vision is to strengthen sectors like education, health, roads, and communication. Through the Naveen Jindal Foundation, free medical services and the Yashasvi Scholarship Scheme are being implemented in both Kurukshetra and Kaithal districts, directly benefiting villagers who might otherwise be unable to afford healthcare.

arara (Jaibeer Rana) Following the tragic death of three children in a collision with a reckless dumper truck on Monday, the police administration swung into action on Tuesday to clamp down on negligent drivers. The drive was spearheaded by DSP Suresh Kumar, who, along with Traffic Incharge Karmveer Saini and Mulana SHO, conducted a rigorous inspection of vehicles at Dosarka Chowk Action Taken

During the operation, the police team focused on overloaded vehicles, unregistered vehicles, and those violating traffic rules like triple riding. A total of 35 challans were issued, with many drivers attempting to evade the checkpoint upon noticing the police presence. DSP Suresh Kumar emphasized that no leniency would be shown toward violators, as reckless driving remains a primary cause of road accidents. He appealed to the public to exercise caution and refrain from allowing children to drive vehicles, referencing Monday's tragic incident as a dire reminder of the consequences of negligence

Continued Vigilance Promised DSP Kumar warned drivers to adhere strictly to traffic rules, stating that the crackdown on violators would be ongoing and that negligence would not be tolerated. "Either follow the rules, or be prepared to face penalties," he asserted.

Traffic Incharge Karmveer Saini reiterated the commitment to curbing illegal and unsafe vehicles, assuring that the enforcement drive would continue

The inspection drive witnessed active participation from police officers, including Mulana SHO Ramesh Kuma and other personnel, ensuring swift and thorough action against violators.

Atal goes to thank them, but in the meantime, Daroga Bhatia arrests Bhavna's father for supporting Atal. When Bhavna informs Atal of her father's arrest, he heads to the police station. Daroga Bhatia demands that Atal sign a confession letter in exchange for Bhavna's father's re-lease. Atal tells Daroga that he will give him what he wants, but he will not allow an innocent person to suffer. Later, Daroga Bhatia gathers the people in the mohalla and announces that Atal will be arrested and will never return." In &TV's Bheema, Mewa, played by Amit Bhardwaj says, "Bheema is forced to dance for money to cover the medical exponse of ber father Mewa and her uncle. Chabeethe medical expenses of her father, Mewa, and her uncle, Chabee-la, who were severely beaten and injured following Kailasha Bua's orders." About &TV's Happu Ki Ultan Paltan, Daroga Happu Singh aka Yogesh Tripathi reveals, "Happu catches his wife, Rajesh (Gee tanjali Mishra), stealing money from his wallet and reprimands her. In response, Rajesh retorts that if Happu earned more, she wouldn't need to steal, and that if he were a successful businessman, their financial situation would be better. Happu shares this with Beni (Vishwanath Chatterjee), who admits that his own wife, Bimlesh (Sapna Sikarwar), has also been trying to take money from his wal let, but it's always empty. Both men wish they could be business-men. The situation takes an unexpected turn when a Meteorological Department employee comes to the police station to file a complaint against his boss. This leads Happu to learn about a predicted cold wave in Kanpur, which sparks the idea of starting a winter wear business. Happu and Beni decide to borrow fifty lakhs from two moneylenders, Gappu and Chappu, promising to repay the loan within five days with interest. However, the forecast is wrong, and instead of a cold wave, a heatwave hits. To make matters worse, Gappu and Chappu demand a 32% monthly interest rate on the loan! Trapped by this overwhelming debt, Happu is forced to consider selling his home to repay the moneylenders." About &TV's Bhabiji Ghar Par Hai, Rohitashv Gour, who plays Manmohan Tiwari, shares, "Tiwari is astounded when he meets Prem (Vishwajeet Soni) and learns that Prem has made a fortune by investing in the stock market. Greed takes over, and Tiwari borrows one crore from a moneylender and invests it in the stock market.

Parampara Tandon dedicates her Musical Journey to Her Mother on Sa Re Ga Ma Pa's Love You Maa Special Episode

CHANDIGARH: Zee TV's Sa Re Ga Ma Pa, India's sing-ing reality show, continues to enthral audiences with its perfect blend of talent, entertainment, and inspiration. As the competition heats up, the nation is glued to their screens, cheering on their favourite contestants and witnessing the transformation of their raw talent into polished perform-ers under the guidance of the mentors Sachin-Jigar, Sachet Parampara, and Guru Randhawa. During the Love You Maa special episode of Sa Re Ga Ma Pa, the atmosphere turned deeply emotional as host Vipul Roy asked the mentors to share heartfelt anecdotes about their mothers. The episode celebrated mothers' pivotal role in shaping their children's lives, and Parampara Tandon's journey with her mother left everyone profoundly moved. When asked about her mother, Parampara revealed how her music journey has been intricately tied to the unyielding support and guidance of her mother, Sangeeta Thakur. Her words resonated with the essence of the episode, showcasing the love and gratitude that artists carry for the ones who inspire them. Parampara said "I never thought talking about this would make me so emotional, to the point where my voice trembles. I've rarely had the opportunity to speak about my mother. Whatever music is within me, it's all because of Introducing Jamai No.1: Jo apne hi andaaz mein sabko sudhaarega!

CHANDIGARH: In Indian households, a jamai isn't just a son-in-law-he's often welcomed like rovalty, showered with love, and treated with reverence. Traditionally, a jamai visits his in-laws with respect and patience, quietly fitting into the family fold. "But what happens when this jamai steps into the household to shake things up in his own unique way?

Enter Neel Paranjape played by Abhishek Malik in Zee TV's Jamai No. 1-a jamai like you've never seen before. Born and raised in the spiritual town of Nashik, Neel comes from a close-knit middle-class family. His father, a pujari at Trimbakeshwar, raised him with strong values, but Neel dreams of creating his own destiny. Armed with charm, ju-gaad, and an irresistible wit, Neel has a way of handling situations that's unconventional yet always effective.

Fate leads Neel into the life of Riddhi Chotwani played by Simaran Kaur-a fiercely successful businesswoman who has spent her life shielding herself from pain and trust-ing no one. As the CEO of her family's winery, Riddhi is sharp and driven, but her mother, Kanchan played by Papia Sengupta, rules the family with a firm grip. When Neel becomes a ghar jamai in the Chotwani household, he brings his unique flair to every challenge, turning even serious moments into playful battles of wits. Neel and Kanchan's interactions are like a spark meeting fire-both equally spirited, their constant back-and-forth is full of humour. Whether it's Neel's mischievous ways of bending the rules or Kanchan's unwavering determination to assert her authority, their tugof-war keeps the family on their toes while Riddhi tries to make sense of this new dynamic.

ACTORS REVEAL HAIRCARE SECRETS!

CHANDIGARH: Great hair does not happen by chance - it is the result of consistent care and the right routine. Whether it is dealing with frizz, dryness, or keeping those locks strong and shiny, the key lies in finding what works best for you. &TV artists open up about their tried-and-tested haircare secrets, revealing how they nurture their tresses to maintain their stunning, healthy shine. These include Neha Joshi (Krishna Devi Vajpayee, Atal), Vikram Dwivedi (Visham-bhar Singh, Bheema), Geetanjali Mishra (Rajesh, Happu Ki Ultan Paltan), and Shubhangi Atre (Angoori Bhabhi, Bhabiji Ghar Par Hai). Neha Joshi, aka Krishna Devi Vajpayee from Atal, shares, "As a working woman with naturally curly hair, maintaining my curls is challenging. To protect my hair from becoming dry and unmanage able, I rely on a homemade mask made from avocado, coconut oil, and egg yolk. I leave it on for 30 minutes before rinsing it with lukewarm water. This mask keeps my hair deeply moisturized and nourished. I avoid heat styling and prefer protective hairstyles like braids to shield my hair from damage. A silk scarf or pillowcase is also essential for minimizing friction and keeping my curls frizz-free and healthy." Vikram Dwivedi, aka Vishambhar Singh from Bheema, shares. "A healthy scalp and nourished hair are essential for me, both on and off-screen. I avoid over using styling products like gels, waxes, or sprays, as they can cause buildup and weaken hair. My hair care routine starts with a warm oil massage twice a week. I use a combination of coconut oil with fenugreek seeds, sometimes adding a few drops of tea tree oil to keep my scalp healthy and hydrated. Massaging my scalp improves circulation and helps prevent dandruff. I also make sure to protect my hair from pollutants and harsh weather by wearing a hat or scarf when outdoors.

Geetanjali Mishra, who plays Rajesh in Happu Ki Ultan Paltan, shares, "Good haircare is not just about shampoos, it is about giving your hair the right nourishment. My routine starts with a weekly hot oil massage using coconut oil in-fused with curry leaves and hibiscus petals, which condition and strengthen the roots. I follow up with a mild, sulfate-free shampoo and a hydrating conditioner to keep my hair soft and shiny. To combat frizz, I apply a leave-in serum that locks in moisture. Once a week, I indulge in a banana and honey hair mask to repair damage and add a natural shine. This routine helps me keep my hair healthy and resilient." Shubhangi Atre, aka Angoori Bhabhi in Bhabiji Ghar Par Hai, says, "For me, the key to great hair is nourishment from within. I stay hydrated and eat food that is rich in omega-3 fatty acids, like walnuts and flaxseeds to help keep my hair strong. A DIY (do it yourself) hair mask made with methi (fenugreek) seeds, soaked overnight, and blended into a paste with curd helps reduce dandruff and keeps my scalp healthy. After washing my hair, I avoid blow-drying and towel-dry it gently to maintain its natural texture. A drop of argan oil on the ends prevents splitting and adds shine. This simple routine keeps my hair smooth, strong, and healthy.

"Hurting, we are all in a pretty bad place": Sikandar Raza after Zimbabwe fell to its lowest T20I total

ulawayo : Following Zimbabwe's record-low T20I total in the second B match against Pakistan, captain Sikandar Raza acknowledged that the team "hurting" and in a "pretty bad place."

From a promising start by the openers to a collapse at 57 all out, the dramatic downturn unfolded in just seven overs. After winning the toss and opting to bat, Zimbabwe's openers. Brian Bennett and Tadiwanashe Marumani, began briskly.

At 4.3 overs, Zimbabwe stood at 37/1 whe Abbas Afridi drew first blood, dismissing Marumani for 16 (14). In the final over of the powerplay, Bennett fell to a short-pitched delivery from Haris Rauf.

This set the stage for left-arm wrist spinn Sufiyan Muqeem to assert control, enabling Pakistan to dominate the game Once Zimbabwe lost their first wicket, the hosts managed only 20 additional runs before being bowled out for 57 in 12.4 overs--their lowest score in T20I history. With little time to reflect, Zimbabwe must regroup quickly ahead of the third T20I again Pakistan on Thursday. We are all hurting, and we are all in a pretty bad place. But we have got 36 hours to bounce back. We can stay in the moment for now, but that won't win us the next game.

BGT: Australia's Alex Carey confident about coming up with solutions to negate "fantastic bowler" Jasprit delaide: Wicketkeeper-batter Alex Carey expressed confidence in the Australian batters' preparations, emphasising their focus on countering India's ace pacer Jasprit Bumrah ahead of the second Test of the Border-Gavaskar Trophy

(BGT) in Adelaide. On the grassy Perth Test pitch, Bumrah stoo head and shoulders above his counterparts with the new ball. Australia's top-order batters

known for their textbook techniques, struggled to match Bumrah's unique action and relentless wicket-taking hunger Delivering a Man of the Match performance

Bumrah claimed match figures of 9/72 at an astounding average of 9.00. As the series moves from Perth to Adelaide, Carey acknowledged the challenge of neutralisin the "fantastic bowler

"He (Bumrah) is obviously a fantastic bowler he has been for a number of years. Our batters are world-class as well and always find ways to come up with solutions," Carey told reporters, as quoted by the ICC Australia's primary strategy to counter Bumra revolves around surviving his first two spells with the new ball. "We've had a look at him now. Hopefully, we can combat that first and second spell and ge him bowling a little bit deeper in the innings with an older ball," Carey noted For Carey, Travis Head's explosive 89-run innings against Bumrah and the Indian pacers using a worn-out ball, exemplified how to blunt the threat of India's lethal seam attack "We saw Travis sort of counterpunch a bit

On Tuesday, the hosts experienced a mild scare from Smith as while he was taking throwdowns from Marnus Labuschagne, he was struck on his right thumb. For a brief while, he stopped batting and looked in some serious pain while having a chat with Marnus Labuschagne, as per Wisden.

An Australian team medical staff member came into the nets for examination of his thumb and Smith moved it gingerly to test its condition. Though he did not experience much discomfort, but left the nets at that point of time.

After a short while Smith was back, batting in another net, seemingly not having suffered any longterm damage that could impact his participation in Adelaide.

In the first Test at Perth, century against England in Smith registered a golden July last year, Smith has duck in the first innings scored 589 runs in 11 before being dismissed for matches at an average of 17 runs in the second 31.00, with just four fifties in innings during a massive 22 innings and best score of run chase of 534 runs. The 91* Aussies lost by 295 runs.

Smith has played six Tests this year, having Aussies would need scored just 230 runs in 12 their premier batter in form if they want to have any seriinnings at a shockingly ous chances of bouncing poor average of 25.55, with back. In 13 Tests of the ongoone fifty and best score of ing ICC World Test 91* to his name.

Senior pacer Josh Hazlewood has been ruled out of the pink-ball match due to a side strain, with century and four fifties only Scott Boland looking all but to show for and a best score set to play. Also, pacers Sean Abbott and Brendan Doggett have also been called up to cover up for Hazlewood in the squad.

Also, all-rounder Beau Webster was included in the squad as a cover for Mitchell Marsh, even though the 33-year-old declared himself fit for the Adelaide Test. The Adelaide test will kickstart from December 6 onwards, with India heading into the game with a mental and physical edge over the Aussies who were left devastated by Bumrah's bowling and captaincy during a 295-run loss at Perth's Optus Stadium in the first

However, the visitors would be looking to overcome the ghosts of the 2020 Adelaide pink-ball Test, which saw them being bundled out for their lowest

Test score of 36 runs starting that series on a nightmarish note. Pat Cummins (4/21) and Josh Hazlewood (5/8) had run riot over the Indian line-up in the second innings, getting an easy target of 90 runs to chase.

Australia squad (for second Test): Pat Cummins (c), Scott Boland, Alex Carey (wk), Josh Hazlewood, Travis Head, Josh Inglis, Usman Khawaja, Marnus Labuschagne, Nathan Lyon, Mitch Marsh, Nathan McSweeney, Steve Smith, Mitchell Starc,
